Buttress's World Guide to Abbreviations of Organizations L. Pitman, 2012-12-06. The previous edition of this directory extended its coverage of the Far East, Australasia, and Latin America areas previously under-represented. For this new edition, emphasis has been given to increasing the number of entries for organizations from Britain, the United States, and Australia, and particular attention has been paid to new political organizations in Central and Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union. The number of entries included has gone up to over 68 000, of which over 9 000 are new or amended. Cross-references from defunct organizations in the previous edition have been deleted, and references indicated by ex and now added for organizations which have changed their name since the previous edition. As before, the range of organizations included is broad, and only purely local organizations have been excluded. This directory therefore lists official and unofficial organizations, national and international, on all subjects, political, economic, and social. Acronyms of parent bodies of subsidiary organizations are given where appropriate, and equivalencies are used to link acronyms in different languages for the same organization. Further information about the organizations listed can be found in the sources listed in the bibliography. I would like to thank Henry Heaney and Graeme Mackintosh for their advice, and David Grinyer for his technical support. L. M. Pitman. Bibliography. Adams R. ed. 1993. Index Kink-Affirming Practice Stefani Goerlich, 2022-08-08 Kink Affirming Practice is an essential guide on how clinicians can ethically and effectively integrate elements of their clients' BDSM identities and practices into their treatment planning, creative interventions, and client self-care. Embracing both an anthropological understanding of this diverse yet still marginalized community as well as a sex-positive approach to mental health, Stefani Goerlich recognizes the ways in which specific power exchange dynamics can evoke positive behavioral changes in clients and guides the reader in how to integrate these concepts into their clinical work. Chapters discuss the foundations of BDSM, what is meant by kink-affirming practice, the purpose of claiming power and ceding control, integrating and reclaiming identities, dominant/submissive personas, and the benefits of caregiving kink, such as pet play. It practically discusses how to conduct a kink-affirming risk assessment as well as exploring topics like ethical and health boundary setting, how to gain informed consent, and the unique issues that arise when clinicians catch themselves romancing the kink. This book is invaluable reading for professionals working with clients who engage in BDSM activities, such as marriage and family therapists, sex therapists, clinical social workers, and counselors. It may also be useful reading for students on both undergraduate and graduate-level human sexuality and sexuality courses.

Critical Topics in Family Therapy Thorana Nelson, Hinda Winawer, 2014-03-19 This Brief from the American Family Therapy Academy (AFTA) is a collection of chapters from the AFTA Monograph Series. The chapters specifically address responses to a wide range of contextual phenomena from a relational family therapy perspective. Chapters are grounded in family systems concepts and informed by postmodern perspectives, including social justice. The collection provides cutting-edge thinking and practices for a variety of experiences that strongly impact individuals and families. Authors address the treatment of couples and families oppressed by socio-contextual phenomena, such as war and poverty, and of those marginalized by the insidious impact of dominant discourse on relationships and on the therapeutic context, for example, sexual gender identity and sexual practices. Established practitioners and scholars with particular expertise in the areas addressed bring exceptional transparency and knowledge to the descriptions of their work. Researchers, clinicians, educators, and students of family and couples therapy will find this volume very useful. Yale Daily News Guide to Fellowships and Grants Ltd Staff Kaplan Educational Center, Ali Mohamadi, Jake Sullivan, 1999 Features only the most useful and best-funded fellowships and grants.
