opportunities As a news reporter his journey to the West comes step by step with the marks of the history China has gone through To learn the history of New China is vague and somewhat boring but to count his footsteps will be more specific more interesting George recalled his visit to Beijing at age sixteen to see Chairman Mao along with millions of Red Guards at the start of the Cultural Revolution in China He tells how he was selected to be a worker peasant soldier student to study English at Anhui University and how he became a graduate student at the Institute of Journalism at the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences His first assignment as Washington correspondent in 1984 enabled him to see the tremendous gap between China and the United States Georges second journey to the West in 1991 finally makes the United States as his second home country He tells the differences in reporting for the Chinese state news agency and in reporting for the independent Chinese newspaper in the United States As a Chinese American his life is closely related with the ups and downs of both China where he was born and the United States where he has been naturalized Thats why he sincerely hopes that the United States will get along well with China and that the development of China is beneficial to the Chinese Americans like him and he is willing to work toward that goal Travel Smart ,2000 Instructor ,1994 The Western Fruit-grower ,1897
