Multinational Federalism in Bosnia and Herzegovina Soeren Keil, 2016-04-15 In 1995 none of the political parties representing the peoples of Bosnia preferred a federal option Yet Bosnia became a federal state highly decentralised and with a complex institutional architecture This solution was imposed on them by international actors as a result of peace negotiations following the Yugoslav wars Political parties in post war Bosnia were not willing to identify with or accept the federation The international community intervened taking over key decisions and so Bosnia and Herzegovina became the first state to experience a new model of federalism namely imposed federalism and a new model of a federal state that of the internationally administered federation By combining comparative politics conflict analysis and international relations theory Soeren Keil offers a unique analysis of federalism in post Dayton Bosnia and Herzegovina By exploring this model of imposed federalism not only does this study greatly contribute to the literature on developments in Bosnia and Herzegovina it also re evaluates comparative federalism in theory and practice This study also offers important conclusions for similar cases both in the Western Balkans region and the wider world where international involvement and federalism as a method of conflict resolution in diverse societies becomes ever more prevalent and important

Emerging Federal Structures in the Post-Cold War Era Soeren Keil, Sabine Kropp, 2022-05-18 This book conceives federalism not as a static institutional architecture but as a dynamic formation always in flux This may entail processes of federalization but in some cases also lead to de federalization It looks at emerging federal structures worldwide and analyses federal structures their emergence operation and categorization The contributors highlight that the emergence of these federal structures has multiple facets from the recognition of ethnic diversity to the use of federalism as a tool of conflict resolution Identifying and categorizing processes of federalization and defederalization in a variety of cases the book provides much needed empirical and theoretical discussion on emerging federal structures and the changing nature of federalism in the post Cold War era     Asymmetries, Courts, and Comparative Constitutional Law Lidia Bonifati,2025-10-20 This book explores constitutional asymmetries in divided multi tiered systems as a dynamic constitutional model to accommodate ethnocultural diversity through a comparative analysis of 12 constitutional systems from both the Global North and the Global South It offers a unique integrated analysis of asymmetries as designed by the constitutional orders and interpreted by courts The book contributes to the comparative constitutional scholarship on asymmetric federalism providing for not only a qualitative but also a quantitative assessment of asymmetries It combines traditional doctrinal and case law analysis with emerging methodological approaches to legal research such as empirical legal studies and decolonial comparative law     The Contentious Politics of Statebuilding Outi Keränen,2017-04-21 This book introduces new conceptual tools for studying local agency and international local dynamics in post conflict statebuilding

Illiberal Politics in Southeast Europe Damir Kapidžić,Věra Stojarová,2021-09-30 The world is increasingly becoming less democratic and this trend has not left Southeast Europe untouched But instead of democratic breakdown what we are witnessing is a gradual decline and the rise of competitive authoritarian regimes This book aims to give a country by country overview of how illiberal politics has led to a decline in democracy and the re emergence of autocratic governance in Southeast Europe more specifically in the Western Balkans It defines illiberal politics as the everyday practices through which ruling parties undermine democratic institutions in order to remain in power Individual chapters examine recent political developments and identify practices of illiberal politics that target electoral institutions rule of law media freedom judicial independence and enable political patronage while several thematic chapters comparatively explore cross regional patterns This book addresses academics policymakers and practitioners with professional interest in Southeast Europe or democratic decline and is both timely and relevant as the European Union attempts to reengage with the countries of the Western Balkans The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Southeast European and Black Sea Studies     Conflict Areas in the Balkans Pinar Yürür,Arda Özkan,2020-10-27 The situation in the Balkans such as the solution to the status of Kosovo is currently the largest international political problem in Europe with the potential to burst into a world crisis regarding the Eastern Western relations On the other hand a successful solution to the problem in the Balkans could serve as a model for solving the Muslim Christian tensions elsewhere in the world It is the intention of this book to contribute proposals for solutions to the problems of Balkans The starting principle for the solutions to be effective is that they should come in a natural way from the people below and should not be enforced by the political elites from above Based on self determination of nations as a starting principle they should encourage intra regional cooperation among the regional entities economic cultural sport as a basis for political social understanding and cooperation secondly accelerate their economic political and social development and thirdly as a final step enable the inclusion of the Balkan countries into the European Union     Federalism, Subnational Constitutions, and Minority Rights G. Alan Tarr,Robert F.
