Murray Walker: Incredible! Maurice

Hamilton, 2021-11-11 A BRILLIANT TRIBUTE TO A BRILLIANT MAN BOOK OF THE MONTH CLASSIC AND SPORTS CAR A celebration of the extraordinary life of legendary commentator Murray Walker with tributes from key figures in Formula 1 and motorsport. Murray Walker was the voice of Formula One matching the thrill of the track with his equally fast paced and exhilarating commentary delivering the euphoria of motor racing to millions. Commentating on his first grand prix for the BBC at Silverstone in 1949 Murray's broadcasting career spanned over fifty years. His natural warmth and infectious enthusiasm won great affection with audiences whilst his passion and knowledge of motorsport allowed him to hone his instinctive presenting style into a craft. When Murray passed away in March 2021 tributes came flooding in from every corner of the sporting world. This book compiled by Murray's great friend and colleague Maurice Hamilton celebrates the extraordinary life of this truly legendary man. With contributions from drivers and industry figures and many friends from the world of motorsport and beyond. Incredible combines fond memories never before told stories and famous Murrayisms with reflections on the highlights of a life lived at full throttle

Formula One Heroes Murray Walker, 2003 Drum, 2007 Sport, Culture, and the Media David Rowe, 1999 This book is about the conjunction of two of the most powerful cultural forces of our times sport and media. It examines the ways in which media sport has insinuated itself into contemporary everyday life and how sport and media have made themselves mutually indispensable as well as for whole societies of people unavoidable The book is divided into two parts The first Making Media Sport traces the rise of the sports media and the ways in which broadcast and print sports texts are produced the values and practices of those who produce them including sports journalists and the economic and political influences on and implications of the media sports cultural complex In the second part Unmaking the Media Sports Text there is a concentration on different media forms television still photography news reporting film live commentary creative sports writing and new media sports technologies In linking how media sport is produced with what it produces this lively introduction to sport and the media helps us to understand the cultural power and influence of the sports image and the sports page Bowker's Complete Video Directory, 1999 ,1999 Commentating Greats Nicolas Sellens,2005

Commentating Greats pays affectionate tribute to the lives and careers of the most popular and influential sports commentators to appear on British television and radio in the last 80 years As well as charting the development of the art of commentary from the very first trial broadcasts Nicolas Sellens collection of 43 potted biographies delves into the dramas controversies clashes of ego and technical blow ups that make sports commentating one of the most exhilarating yet stressful of professions Cataloguing the personal highs and lows the triumphs and the gaffes this illustrated book is the definitive guide to arguably the most celebrated and talked about set of personalities in British broadcasting BOOK JACKET Murray Walker - My Autobiography Murray Walker,2002 The voice of motor racing and the man responsible for introducing millions of viewers to the previously inaccessible world of Formula 1 tells the story of his incident packed life Murray Walker is an institution When the man who made famous the catchphrase Unless I'm very much mistaken I AM very much mistaken announced that he was retiring as ITV's Grand Prix commentator at the end of the 2001 season the media reacted as if the sport itself was losing one of its biggest stars His reputation for mistakes was the making of Walker He was the fan who happened to be given the keys to the commentary box and never wanted to give them back His high octane delivery kept viewers on the edge of their seats while his passion for talking about the sport he loved was matched by an all encompassing knowledge gained through hours of painstaking research before every race In fact he's a throwback to another age who managed to survive and indeed prosper from the revolutions in motor racing In his book he writes about his childhood and the influence that his father British motorcycle champion Graham Walker had on his career Failing to match his father's achievements on the track he made a successful career for himself in advertising which catapulted him to the top of his profession An offer from the BBC to take over the commentary seat for their F1 broadcasts was manna from heaven for Walker and it wasn't long before the infamous Murrayisms enlivened a sport which until then had been shrouded in a cloak of unfathomable technical jargon and mind numbing statistics He also talks about the biggest changes in the sport over the last 50 years in particular the safety issues which came to the fore after the tragic death of Ayrton Senna His partnership with

James Hunt behind the microphone is the subject of some hilarious anecdotes while his views on drivers such as Damon Hill Jacques Villeneuve Eddie Irvine and David Coulthard make for fascinating reading Murray Walker Christopher Hilton,2001 To mark motorsports announcer Walker's retirement after the 2001 season this tribute brings together all aspects of his life at the track and otherwise My Autobiography Murray Walker,2002 Murray Walker's Grand Prix Year Murray Walker,1989
