The Media World of ISIS Michael Kroma, Rosemary Pennington, 2019-11-01 This anthology explores how ISIS used media and propaganda shedding light on the characteristics mission and tactics of its messaging. From efficient instructions on how to kill civilians to horrifying videos of beheadings no terrorist organization has more comprehensively weaponized social media than ISIS. Its strategic multiplatformed campaign is so effective that it has ensured global news coverage and inspired hundreds of young people around the world to abandon their lives and their countries to join a foreign war. Contributors consider how ISIS's media strategies imitate activist tactics, legitimize its self-declared caliphate, and exploit narratives of suffering and imprisonment as propaganda to inspire followers. Using a variety of methods contributors explore the appeal of ISIS to Westerners the worldview made apparent in its doctrine and suggestions for counteracting the organization's approaches. Its highly developed targeted and effective media campaign has helped make ISIS one of the most recognized terrorism networks in the world. Gaining a comprehensive understanding of its strategies will help combat the new realities of terrorism in the twenty-first century.

Muslims and the State in the Post-9/11 West Erik Bleich, 2013-09-13 From the terrorist attacks of 9/11 to the assassination of Dutch filmmaker Theo van Gogh to the London transportation bombings dramatic events of recent years have generated security concerns about Muslim communities in the West. These have added an additional layer to the tensions surrounding Muslim immigrant integration and have generated heated discussions about how governments should address such challenges. This collection assembles leading scholars to address four central themes related to the interactions between Muslims and states in contemporary Europe and North America. Its authors investigate the timing of Muslims' emergence as a perceived security risk, they review the variety of actions undertaken in response to the new concerns, they assess the effectiveness of different kinds of policies in managing the security and social challenges that governmental actors observe, and they identify relevant Muslim sub-groups and their highly divergent views on recent developments. This book thus serves as a foundation for understanding an issue of critical importance and as a touchstone for advancing public policy and scholarly debate about Muslim state interactions. This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies.

Caring for the Vulnerable: Perspectives in Nursing Theory, Practice, and Research Barbara Anderson, 2008 Organized into seven units concepts nursing theories research practice programs teaching learning and policy this text offers a broad focus on vulnerability and vulnerable populations in addition to extending nurses' thinking on the theoretical formulations that guide practice. It is a timely and necessary response to the culturally diverse vulnerable populations for whom nurses must provide appropriate and precise care.

From Postmodernism to Postsecularism Eric Walberg, 2013-07-31 Eric Walberg's new book From Postmodernism to Postsecularism Re-emerging Islamic Civilization provides an overview of imperialism and colonialism in the Muslim world It elaborates on the third of the Great Games addressed in his earlier work Postmodern Imperialism which traced the movement of history from the colonialism of the British and other empires through the neocolonialism of the US empire to the current Great Game marked by the revival of Islam Walberg reviews the Islamic reform traditions from the 19th century on deriving from Al Afghani Qutb incorporating the Islamic critique of the West as well as the Sunni Shia mainstream Sufi Salafi divisions Then he addresses the twentieth century experience of Islamic states Saudi Arabia Pakistan Afghanistan Iran as well as the current dynamics of the Muslim world Saudi Iran Qatar Turkey and now Egypt Tunisia Libya Key actors and milestones in the struggle to free the Muslim world from the imperial yoke are discussed While the Christian Judaic surrender to capitalism led to Marxist secularism and the communist utopia Walberg views the Islamic project as containing an alternative socio economic orientation This prevented the rise of capitalism imperialism in lands populated by Muslims making them the losers in the technology race of the 19th 20th centuries but the repository of a corrected vision of the rich lost values of the earlier monotheistic traditions Here modernity and postmodernism are critiqued from both left and right and Islam is discussed as both an alternative worldview and world order However the contradictions of the Arab Spring may be resolved as the West continues its decline Walberg projects how the understandings entrenched in Islamic civilization point toward a new old civilizational alternative one not derivative from the West but indigenous to the developing world still under its heel

The Routledge Handbook of Muslim-Jewish Relations Josef Meri,2016-06-23 The Routledge Handbook of Muslim Jewish Relations invites readers to deepen their understanding of the historical social cultural and political themes that impact modern day perceptions of interfaith dialogue

The volume is designed to illuminate positive encounters between Muslims and Jews as well as points of conflict within a historical framework Among other goals the volume seeks to correct common misperceptions about the history of Muslim Jewish relations by complicating familiar political narratives to include dynamics such as the cross influence of literary and intellectual traditions Reflecting unique and original collaborations between internationally renowned contributors the book is intended to spark further collaborative and constructive conversation and scholarship in the academy and beyond

The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences ,2008 Law and Religion in Multicultural Societies Rubya Mehdi,2008 This collection of essays concerns the co existence of religious and secular laws in multicultural societies By considering a wide range of societies the book allows more comparisons and makes a much wider contribution than most others on the same topic

The majority of the papers in this book are either based on personal experience or on empirical social scientific research The sociological approach means that both religious doctrine and legal doctrine are seen and discussed as social phenomena Half of the studies in the book are focused on countries and societies in North America and Europe including Britain Canada the European Union Belgium and Denmark They consider other countries in their relationships to North America and Europe in consequence of immigration and they contain many comparative reflections thus opening up further possibilities of understanding society in the west Law and Religion in Multicultural Societies is in many ways a global book on a global issue The Bangladeshi Diaspora in the United States After 9/11 Shafiqur Rahman, 2011 After 9/11 Bangladeshi Americans felt pressured to see their identities in binary Muslim vs American terms. They refused to accept this identity not only because it does not fit but also because it curtails their ability to engage society in multiple terms and to exercise their rights as citizens. Bangladeshi experiences were colored by gender, generation and social class. While the first generation Bangladeshi maintain strong connections with Bangladesh and prefer to be identified as Bangladeshi Americans, the second generation identifies as desi, a generic South Asian identity which helps them reconcile their parents' expectations and the demands of their lives in the United States. Bangladeshi diasporic media are not only maintain connections with their old home but also are an integral part of their lives in the diaspora. Provided by publisher The Western Journal of Black Studies, 2009 Susceptibilities of the Tourism Industry. The Effect of Terrorism on commercial Surf Tourism Esteban Hack, 2018-11-22 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2016 in the subject Tourism Miscellaneous grade 2 1 University of Plymouth Cornwall College Newquay in partnership with UoP course Marine Sports Science BSc Hons language English abstract The tourism industry has significant repercussions in regards to economic value to destinations worldwide but is susceptible to external shocks such as terrorism as tourist numbers follow terroristic activity causing economic damage to destinations beyond managerial control. Surf tourism is of growing economic, social and environmental value to destinations in Indonesia due to the region's abundance of high quality waves and resulting attractiveness to surfers; however, it is a region frequented by terrorist activity. The aim of this paper is to investigate the effect of terrorism on commercial surf tourism as a sub-segment of the global tourism industry. Data was obtained using a survey consisting of 5 closed ended questions assessing IAO variables of traveling surfers regarding the perception of terrorism as a risk influencing destination choice and travel plans. 42 usable responses were collected over a three month period from January 7th to March 28th 2016. Results of the statistical analysis suggest that surfers demonstrate a different behaviour in comparison to other tourists and have a low perception of terrorism as a risk influencing destination choice. In fact, from the data and statistical analysis it appears that the significant reliance on the quality of waves at a destination outweighs the risk of terrorism as an influence on destination choice, therefore accepting the tested hypothesis which stated that surf tourists do not perceive terrorism as a high risk influencing destination choice or travel plans. Suggestions for future research include a replication of this study using a larger sample size and changes to the design of the questionnaire in order to improve upon limitations and further investigate conspicuous findings of this study as well as potential links to the field of behavioural psychology. A Quarter Century of the "Clash of Civilizations" Jeffrey Haynes, 2021-05-11 The clash of civilizations focuses on conflict and cooperation between and within states. Dealing with the clash is essential for a peaceful and harmonious world. The clash of civilizations is a topic of great interest around the world and constitutes an important dimension of religion and international relations In the quarter century since Huntington first aired his controversial framework inter civilizational clash and dialogue have become mainstream issues both in international relations and in many Western countries domestic concerns The book examines a key question how does Samuel Huntington s clash of civilizations paradigm help explain current Western governments responses to Muslim migration and related security issues Understanding relations between the West Westerners and Muslim majority societies Muslims is impossible without being aware that right wing populist politicians in the West as well as some policy makers and commentators seem to view all Muslims in a malign way This indicates a lack of willingness to make a distinction between on the one hand the mass of moderate ordinary and peaceful Muslims and on the other hand a small minority of Islamist extremists and even smaller number of Islamist terrorists The result is a crucial topic of our times how do different civilizations coexist in a small and increasingly congested planet without conflict The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of The Review of Faith International Affairs
