Lovorn, 2021-05-15 Global Indigenous Communities is a wide ranging examination of global Indigenous communities that continue to suffer from colonization and assimilation issues including intergenerational trauma The scholarship is interdisciplinary it is not easily categorized as sociology anthropology ethnography or philosophy but cuts across all of these disciplines as well as Indigenous methodologies. The book not only presents an academic study of Indigenous issues covering Indigenous community life, religion, the environment, economic matters, education and healthcare but also incorporates contributions from Carol Locust EdD that reflect on her lifetime of experience in Indigenous education and healthcare. Each studied prism of Indigenous life is revealed to be impacted by the experience of intergenerational trauma that results from continued colonization. Ultimately this book aims to bridge the communication gap between Western and Indigenous scholarship and readership artfully combining Indigenous approaches with a traditional academic style.
