Legal Issues of Digitalisation, Robotization and Cyber Security in the Light of EU Law Nadežda

Šišková, 2024-07-15 Legal Issues of Digitalisation Robotization and Cyber Security in the Light of EU Law By Nadežda Šišková

The current extremely rapid and dynamic development of modern technologies and the unprecedented degree of their integration into the everyday life of every person are radically changing the previous modus vivendi in the society. The emergence of the Internet and the continuous development of digital technologies have brought into fore a number of new legal problems and issues that require a timely solution and proper and effective legal regulation by the EU as one of the leading regulators of the digital world. The technological developments have opened a new window to the borderless world of the Internet giving a person an opportunity to exercise his/her fundamental rights at a new and unprecedented level. This unique book thus presents the key information and solves the related problems concerning the legal regulation of the usage of modern technologies in everyday life. The book is conceived in a form of a collective monograph prepared by an international team of renowned researchers from famous European Universities: Heidelberg University, Palacký University in Olomouc, Tallinn University of Technology, Comenius University in Bratislava and Shevchenko University in Kyiv and scientific legal societies as well as top level experts from practice. This team is representing the countries with the highest level of integration of modern technologies: Estonia, Germany, Czech Republic, Slovakia or has a unique experience with provision of cyber security in the extreme conditions. The book creates a main output from the research project with the title The EU and the Challenges of Modern Society: legal issues of digitalization, robotization, cyber security and prevention of hybrid threats granted by the EACEA in the category of Jean Monnet network. The publication of the book is supported by the financial subsidy in the amount of 3 000 Euro sent by Palacký University to the Publisher Intersentia. Topics that the authors focus on: The European approach to the right to Internet access, Artificial Intelligence and the Challenges for the Theory of Human Rights, GDPR and the Right to Personal Data and Privacy in a Modern Society, Consumer Protection in the on-line World, Future challenges in consumer protection, Competition Law in a Digital Economy, EU Regulation of On-line Platforms, Pricing Algorithms and Anticompetitive Agreements, EU legal framework of software security vulnerabilities, New Cybersecurity Rules for Markets in Crypto Assets in the EU Law. The primary readers/users are legal experts in European law, legal researchers and scientific societies dealing with EU matters, IT specialists, personal data specialists, scholars and students in European countries and America, UK, USA, EU and candidate countries etc. compulsory source for students of the Palacký University, Czech Republic, Heidelberg University, Germany, Tallinn Technical University, Estonia, Comenius University in Bratislava, Slovakia, Kyiv Shevchenko University, Ukraine. Benefits the analysis of the most important and thorny legal issues of the process of digitalisation, robotization and providing of cyber security, the proposals de lege ferenda concerning the optimal ways of legal regulation of the mentioned process. Great number of key legislative acts were adopted at the level of the EU The conclusions will summarise the key ideas of the authors and the proposals de lege ferenda concerning the whole text The same refers to the preface which will be prepared by the Vice President of the European Commission Vera Jourov responsible for Values and Transparency which will relate to the whole text

Sovereign Emergencies Patrick William Kelly, 2018-05-10 Shows how Latin America was the crucible of the global human rights revolution of the 1970s

Human Rights, Digital Society and the Law Mart Susi, 2019-05-31 The Internet has created a formidable challenge for human rights law and practice worldwide International scholarly and policy oriented communities have so far established a consensus regarding only one main aspect human rights in the internet are the same as offline There are emerging and ongoing debates regarding not only the standards and methods to be used for achieving the sameness of rights online but also whether classical human rights as we know them are contested by the online environment The internet itself in view of its cross border nature and its ability to affect various areas of law requires adopting an internationally oriented approach and a perspective strongly focused on social sciences In particular the rise of the internet enhanced also by the influence of new technologies such as algorithms and intelligent artificial systems has influenced individuals civil political and social rights not only in the digital world but also in the atomic realm As the coming of the internet calls into question well established legal categories a broader perspective than the domestic one is necessary to investigate this phenomenon This book explores the main fundamental issues and practical dimensions related to the safeguarding of human rights in the internet which are at the focus of current academic debates It provides a comprehensive analysis with a forward looking perspective of bringing order into the somewhat chaotic online dimension of human rights It addresses the matter of private digital censorship the apparent inefficiency of existing judicial systems to react to human rights violations online the uncertainty of liability for online human rights violations whether the concern with personal data protection overshadows multiple other human rights issues online and will be of value to those interested in human rights law and legal regulation of the internet

Business, Peacebuilding, and Regulation Sean Molloy, 2024-08-26 This book examines the relationship between business based peacebuilding and the opportunities that emerge from the pluralisation of regulation The core message is notwithstanding the broad range of regulatory initiatives and actors that exist in conflict affected settings the state should assume responsibilities for defining the types of contribution that business can and ought to make to peace It also demonstrates how the state through different forms and methods of regulation is well placed to engage businesses to do so It is particularly concerned with the potential for regulation to help address what is identified as a state of optimistic uncertainty in the field of business and peacebuilding On one level there is a sense of optimism around the types of contributions that businesses can and often do make as agents for peace On another there are varying degrees of uncertainty surrounding the actual peacebuilding impacts of business activities how businesses are to understand the ways in which to make these contributions and why businesses would do so Regulation this book will argue can play an important role in bridging the chasm between optimism and uncertainty This book will be of interest to those engaged not only with business and peacebuilding but also business and human rights business and development and business and the environment Moreover this book is also of contemporary interest in other ways the aftermath of the Ukrainian conflict as an example will require a concerted effort to rebuild that society after war Private sector actors could be a powerful vehicle for reconstruction and development and this book examines how regulation can be used to facilitate businesses involvement in peacebuilding efforts

The Routledge Companion to Humanitarian Action Roger Mac Ginty, Jenny H Peterson, 2015-03-24 The Companion on Humanitarian Action addresses the political ethical legal and practical issues which influence reactions to humanitarian crisis It does so by exploring the daily dilemmas faced by a range of actors including policy makers aid workers the private sector and the beneficiaries of aid and by challenging common perceptions regarding humanitarian crisis and the policies put in place to address these Through such explorations it provides practitioners and scholars with the knowledge needed to both understand and improve upon current forms of humanitarian action The Companion will be of use to those interested a range of humanitarian programmes ranging from emergency medical assistance military interventions managing refugee flows and the implementation of international humanitarian law As opposed to addressing specific programmes it will explore five themes seen as relevant to understanding and engaging in all modes of humanitarian action The first section explores varying interpretations of humanitarianism including critical historical and political economic explanations as well as more practice based explorations focused on notions needs assessments and evaluation Following this readers will be exposed to the latest debates on a range of humanitarian principles including neutrality and sovereignty before exploring the key issues faced by the main actors involved in humanitarian crisis from international NGOs to local community based organizations The final two sections address what are seen as key dilemmas in regards to humanitarian action and emerging trends in the humanitarian system including the increasing role of social media in responding to crises Whilst not a how to guide the Companion contains many practical insights for policy makers and aid workers whilst also offering analytical insights for students of humanitarian action Indeed throughout the book readers will come to the realization that understanding and improving humanitarian action simultaneously requires both active critical reflection and an acceptance of the urgency and timeliness of action that is required for humanitarian assistance to have an impact on vital human needs Exploring a sector that is far from homogenous both practitioners and scholars alike will find the contributions of this book offers them a deeper understanding of the motivations and mechanics of current interventions but also insight into current changes and progress occurring in the field of humanitarian practice
