Effective Practices in Online Teacher Preparation for Literacy Educators Karchmer-Klein, Rachel, Pytash, Kristine E., 2019-10-11 Online education has become a prevalent means of program and course delivery especially within teacher education programs. However, the lack of preparation in online design is concerning especially in the field of teacher education where the focus is preparing preservice and practicing teachers to implement effective evidence-based instructional strategies. Effective Practices in Online Teacher Preparation for Literacy Educators is an essential scholarly resource that shares innovative ideas for translating face-to-face reading literacy specialist preparation into effective online instruction for courses in literacy education. Highlighting various topics such as instructional design, teacher education, and literacy assessment, this book is ideal for instructors, curriculum developers, instructional designers, IT specialists, education professionals, instructors, administrators, academicians, and researchers. Handbook of Research on Pedagogical Models for

Next-Generation Teaching and Learning Keengwe, Jared, 2017-10-31 Every generation of students comes to the classroom with different needs than that of their predecessors. Implementing new methods and styles of teaching to meet these diverse needs will provide students with the best chance of success in their educational careers. The Handbook of Research on Pedagogical Models for Next Generation Teaching and Learning is a critical scholarly source that examines the most effective and efficient techniques for implementing new educational strategies in a classroom setting. Featuring pertinent topics including mixed reality simulations, interactive lectures, reflexive teaching models, and project-based learning, this is an ideal publication for educators, academicians, students, and researchers that are interested in discovering more about the recent advances in educational fields. Fostering Multiple Levels of Engagement in Higher Education Environments

Walters, Kelley, Henry, Patricia, 2019-01-22 Because of the continued growth of online instruction, there is now a need to better understand every demographic of students in higher education. Achieving successful student-faculty engagement in distance learning is a growing challenge. Fostering Multiple Levels of Engagement in Higher Education Environments is an essential reference source that serves as a guideline for institutions looking to improve current undergraduate or graduate programs and successful engagement practices with online faculty staff and students. Featuring research on topics such as student-faculty engagement, engaging curriculum, engaging platform, and engaging relationships, this book is ideally designed for educators, practitioners, academicians, and researchers seeking coverage on successful engagement in higher education.

Narratives of Hope and Grief in Higher Education Stephanie Anne Shelton, Nicole Sieben, 2020-04-01 This collection weaves together the personal narratives of a group of diverse scholars in academia in order to reflect on the ways that grief and hope matter for those situated within higher education. Each chapter explores a unique aspect of grief and loss from experiencing a personal tragedy such as the loss of a loved one to national and international grief such as campus shootings and refugee camp experiences to experiencing racism and microaggressions as a woman of color in academia to the implications of religious differences severing personal ties as an individual navigates research and academic studies Unlike most resources examining grief this collection pushes beyond notions of sorrow as solely individual and instead situates moments of loss and hurt as ones that matter politically academically professionally and personally The editors and their authors offer pathways forward to academics researchers teachers pedagogues and thinkers who grapple with grief in a variety of forms transforming this book into a critical resource of hope to those in the field of education and others who may feel the effects of an otherwise solitary journey of grief to create an awareness of solidarity and support that some may not realize exists within academic circles Adult and Continuing Education: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2014-03-31 Beyond the undergraduate and graduate levels education has traditionally ceased when students enter the workforce as professionals in their respective fields However recent trends in education have found that adult students beyond the traditional university age often benefit greatly from returning to further their education Adult and Continuing Education Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications investigates some of the most promising trends in furthering education and professional development in a variety of settings and industries With an extensive array of chapters on topics ranging from non traditional students to online and distance education for adult learners this multi volume reference book will provide students educators and industry professionals with the tools necessary to make the most of their return to the classroom Yearbook of the National Reading Conference National Reading Conference (U.S.), 2007 Undergraduate Announcement University of Michigan--Dearborn, 2003 57th Yearbook of the National Reading Conference Youb Kim, 2008 Undergraduate Catalog University of Michigan--Dearborn, 2009

Designing Gifted Education Programs and Services Scott J. Peters, Dina Brulles, 2021-09-23 This book is intended to support educators in the design and implementation of comprehensive gifted education plans From planning to actual implementation this book takes the reader from goals and purpose to assessing student needs and program design The authors begin with a broad overview of best practices in programming and services highlighting connections to student needs programming standards and state laws Their recommendations include philosophical cultural and practical considerations and data based decision making In this book Peters and Brulles guide the reader through the process of determining the most optimal programming methods for schools to take based on their individual needs and circumstances With this book schools will be able to design and develop programs and or services that lay the foundation necessary to ensure all students are appropriately challenged Guide to Distance Learning Programs University Continuing Education Association, 2001 Education and Training in Developmental Disabilities , 2007-03 CALFED Bay-Delta Program Programmatic EIS, Long-Term Comprehensive Plan to Restore Ecosystem Health and Improve Water Management, San Francisco Bay - Sacramento/San Joaquin River Bay-Delta D,Dsum; Program Goals and Objectives, Dapp1; No Action Alternative, , 2000 The College Blue Book Macmillan Publishing, 2004-11 Indexes the
