In the Kitchen, 1550-1800 Madeline Bassnett, Hillary Nunn, 2025-10-01 In the Kitchen insists that the preparation of food whether imaginative, physical, or spatial is central to a deeper understanding of early modern food cultures and practices. Devoted to the arts of cooking and medicine, early modern kitchens concentrated on producing, processing, and preserving materials necessary for nourishment and survival, yet they also fed social and economic networks and nurtured a sense of physical, spiritual, and political connection to surrounding lands and their cultures. The essays in this volume illuminate this expansive view of cooking and aspire to show how the kitchen's inner workings prove tightly though often invisibly interwoven with local, national, and increasingly global surroundings. Engaging with literary and historical methodologies including close reading, recipe analysis, and perspectives on gender, class, race, and colonialism, we begin to develop a shared theoretical and practical language for the art of cooking that combines the physical with the intellectual, the local with the global, and the domestic with the political.

Searcher, 1999 Digital Food Tania Lewis, 2020-02-20 Tania Lewis offers the first critical account of the impact of digital information media and communication technologies on the topic of food.
