undoubtedly constitutes a fascinating development in the history of international literatures written in English These postcolonial plays offer ideal vantage points from which to observe the struggle of two comparable Commonwealth countries to accommodate the pluralism of their social fabric As the prominent theatre scholars of this collection cogently argue the articulation of otherness forms a central concern in the drama of these two countries The postcolonial playwrights studied in this book interpret marginality as an expression of resistance against the legacy of Empire often through the weapon of subversive mimicry The organising spatial metaphor of the book suggests new readings of the other as an evolving site of contestation This volume articulates a new form of comparative poetics in which dramatic texts are used as reflecting mirrors as privileged tools to explore the similarity and otherness that Australia and Canada share     Time Refigured Martin Procházka, Ondřej Pilný, 2005 Focused on the myths and mythologies of European cultural history this volume seeks to address the present and past functions of foundation texts in the evolution of the European idea One of the specific objectives of this volume is to reconsider in the context of ongoing European expansion and integration the functionalist approach of Benedict Anderson according to whom imagined communities are to be distinguished not by their falsity genuineness but by the style in which they are imagined The common denominator of each of the essays contained in this volume is the problem of the discontinuity of time in relation to tradition cultural and individual memory as well as in relation to historical and literary narratives Time becomes the locus of its own reflexivity it is self temporalized It undergoes endless reiteration within itself and needs a semantics which sets valid accents for specific moments Jean Bessiere     Quill & Quire, 1998     A History of Postcolonial Literature in 12 1/2 Books Tobias Döring, 2007     Beyond Resistance M.
