Rubin, Carol Rubin, 1989 This husband and wife team of expert psychologists has written a wise practical guide explaining those unpleasant family squabbles and how to turn family conflicts into creative opportunities for family discussion and growth Crisis and the Culture of Fear and Anxiety in Contemporary Europe Carmen Zamorano Llena, Jonas Stier, Billy Gray, 2023-08-01 The accruement of crises over the last two decades with their particular manifestations in the European context has evoked the feeling of living in exceptional times as captured in the recurrent claim that we live in the age of anxiety. The main aim of this collection is to analyse from a multidisciplinary perspective the causes and consequences of the current dominance of the discourse of fear, anxiety and crisis through the experience of distinct and often interdependent moral panics in twenty first century Europe. With its multidisciplinary approach this volume sheds light on the need to view the interrelationship between different crises and their associated affects as crucial in attaining a more nuanced understanding of the aetiology and effects of the current age of anxiety. This multidisciplinary scrutiny of the interrelationship of twenty first century fears, anxiety and crises signals an original engagement with these complex phenomena in order to make their emergence and profound effects on contemporary society more comprehensible. The timeliness of the thematic focus and the rigorous in depth analyses make this collection relevant to students and academics within the fields of sociology, literary and cultural studies, political science and anthropology as well as to those in European studies and global studies Making Language Matter Deborah J. Vause, Julie S. Amberg, 2013 Now adopted by over 40 states the Common Core State Standards provide a clear and consistent framework for public school systems as they develop student learning goals that define the path to readiness for college, careers and informed citizenship. While each state is developing its own procedures for adoption of the Standards, individual teachers will continue to hold the ultimate responsibility for devising lesson plans and tailoring instruction to meet these benchmarks. Making Language Matter will help prospective and practicing teachers develop lessons to meet the benchmarks enumerated in the Standards for the English Language Arts categories: language, speaking and listening, writing and reading. A timely text for literacy education courses, it explores language topics within these categories and suggests pedagogical approaches and activities for use in 9-12 language arts classrooms. Using a linguistics approach to unify the study of all the language arts, it engages readers in learning how to help students make purposeful language choices essential for both academic and workplace success Music Across the Senses Jody L. Kerchner, 2013-11-11 Music Across the Senses shows how music educators can facilitate PK-12 students develop listening skills using multisensory means: mapping movement and verbal descriptions in general music and performance ensemble classes.
