Society of the Righteous Kimberly T. Wortmann, 2024-10-01 Although the rule of the Omani sultanate in Tanzania came to an end following the Zanzibar Revolution in 1964 the legacy of its empire still exists today along with its distinctive religious identity The Ibadhi Muslims of Omani descent who are neither Sunni nor Shi'a have used a message of tolerance and harmonious coexistence to spread their beliefs across North and East Africa in a post revolution and post independence era In Society of the Righteous Kimberly T Wortmann explores how the Ibadhi Omani community in Tanzania has engaged in charitable activities cooperation within the Muslim community and economic development despite facing suspicions of foreign influence and elitism The focus is on the Istiqaama Muslim Community an international charity network established in Oman and Tanzania in 1995 This ethnographic and transregional study documents the strategies employed by the People of Truth and Righteousness to preserve their unique religious practices and beliefs Society of the Righteous moves beyond the typical discussions on global Muslim religion and politics such as tradition versus modernity conflicts between different branches of Islam and the global war on terror Instead it explores the intricacies of a religious community whose significance has been obscured by the limitations of area studies paradigms It illuminates the complexities of religious identity transnational networks gender relations and the power of collective memory in shaping narratives of belonging cultural preservation and change in an increasingly interconnected world

Muslim Ethiopia Terje Østebø, 2013-04-17 Drawing on international and multidisciplinary expertise this pioneering edited collection analyzing Islam in contemporary Ethiopia challenges the popular notion of a Christian Ethiopia imagined as the century old never colonized Abyssinia isolated in the highlands and dominated by Orthodox Christianity

Prayer in the City Patrick A. Desplat, Dorothea E. Schulz, 2014-03-15 This volume envisions social practices surrounding mosques shrines and public spaces in urban contexts as a window on the diverse ways in which Muslims in different regional and historical settings imagine experience and inhabit places and spaces as sacred Unlike most studies on Muslim communities this volume focuses on cultural material and sensuous practices and urban everyday experience Drawing on a range of analytical perspectives the contributions examine spatial practices in Muslim societies from an interdisciplinary perspective an approach which has been widely neglected both in Islamic studies and social sciences

Rethinking the Anthropology of Islam Katja Föllmer, Lisa Maria Franke, Ramzi Ben Amara, 2024-07-01 The contributions of this volume discuss the broad field of transformation processes in Muslim societies from different perspectives with various disciplinary approaches Apart from methodological questions the authors investigate religious and social developments in Africa and the Near and Middle East while focusing e.g. on the production of meaning negotiation of religious values and spaces gendered agency and debates of identity

The Contemporary British Mosque Abdul-Azim Ahmed, 2024-03-21 Repositioning mosques as social cultural and political spaces this book provides new insights on key contemporary debates the religious identity of Britain secularisation the far right and terrorism and gender equality

Exploring the story of the British mosque from house conversions to grand works of architecture and the role they play in public life Abdul Azim Ahmed details the establishment of early mosques during the era of Empire and the rapid growth in the years following the Second World War Ahmed takes a sociological approach to this study drawing on fieldwork and ethnographic case studies alongside reviews of databases and historical documents to provide perspectives on the British mosque from the congregants themselves The Muslim congregation a poorly understood and often overlooked dimension of religion in Britain is examined and issues of diversity denomination sacredness and society are explored

Women Speak Nation Panchali Ray, 2019-07-24 Women Speak Nation underlines the centrality of gender within the ideological construction of nationalism The volume locates itself in a rich scholarship of feminist critique of the relationship between political economic cultural and social formations and normative gendered relations to try and understand the cross currents in contemporary feminist theorizing and politics The chapters question the gendered depictions of the nation as Hindu upper caste middle class heterosexual able bodied Indian mother The volume also brings together interviews and short essays from practitioners and activists who voice an alternative reimagining of the nation The book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of gender politics modern South Asian history and cultural studies

The Portuguese in the Creole Indian Ocean Fernando Rosa, 2015-10-14 This monograph is an exploration of the historical legacy of the Portuguese in the Indian Ocean in particular in Goa Macau Melaka and Malabar Instead of fixing the gaze on either the colonial or the indigenous it attempts to scrutinise a creole space that is rooted in Indian Ocean cosmopolitanism

The Borders of Islam Stig Jarle Hansen, Atle Mesøy, Tuncay Kardas, 2009 In The Clash of Civilizations Samuel Huntington argued that the borders between Western and

Islamic civilizations would one day become the loci of cultural conflict The statements of Osama Bin Laden would seem to support this view This battle is not between al Qaeda and the U S he famously said in October of 2001 This is a battle of Muslims against the Global Crusaders These specially commissioned essays critically examine the virtual and actual borders of Islamic civilization Contributors concentrate on local dynamics and whether they support or contradict an emerging global confrontation between Islam and its Christian Hindu Buddhist and secular neighbors They consider borders that host Muslim majorities Afghanistan Bosnia Chechnya Ethiopia Indonesia Somalia Pakistan and Turkey those that have significant Muslim minorities Phillipines Nigeria and India and those that reflect new faultlines created by migration to France the United Kingdom the United States and Spain or by advances in technology Essays explore the rise of international Salafi jihadism and whether it can be traced to countries that straddle the Islamic and non Islamic world In conclusion the contributors argue that mechanisms far more complex than those described in Huntington s Clash of Civilizations influence many border regions suggesting that while poverty and institutional failure heighten religious awareness and practice the actual effects of these phenomena are entirely different

Hot Spot Horn of Africa Eva-Maria Bruchhaus,2003 The volume includes most of the contributions to a meeting on recently completed or ongoing research projects concerning the small Horn of Africa that is Ethiopia Eritrea and Somalia held in Hamburg in May 2002 as well as a few complementary articles Contributions are widely diversified as the Hamburg meeting had gathered young scholars from German universities working on extremely different themes The subjects range widely from Agro Anthropology to Political Science with Sociology and Social Anthropology enjoying the strongest coverage
