Collaboration and Co Creation in Museums Heritage and the Arts is essential for students academics communities and cultural practitioners interested in the complexities and rewards of collaborative work It offers valuable insights into the theories and practices that shape collaborative projects across different cultural contexts and disciplines making it an indispensable guide for anyone engaged in or studying the cultural sector Engaging Heritage, Engaging Communities Bryony Onciul,Michelle L. Stefano,Stephanie Hawke,2017 International multi disciplinary perspectives on the key question of community engagement in theory and practice in a diverse range of heritage settings Across the global networks of heritage sites museums and galleries the importance of communities to the interpretation and conservation of heritage is increasingly being recognised Yet the very term meaningful community engagement betrays a myriad of contrary approaches and understandings Who is a community How can they engage with heritage and why would they want to How do communities and heritage professionals perceive one another What does itmean to engage These questions unsettle the very foundations of community engagement and indicate a need to unpick this important but complex trend Engaging Heritage Engaging Communities critically explores the latest debates and practices surrounding community collaboration By examining the different ways in which communities participate in heritage projects the book questions the benefits costs and limitations of community engagement Whether communities are engaging through innovative initiatives or in response to economic political or social factors there is a need to understand how such engagements are conceptualised facilitated and experienced by boththe organisations and the communities involved Bryony Onciul is Lecturer in History at the University of Exeter Michelle Stefano is the Co Director of Maryland Traditions the folklife program for the state of Maryland and Visiting Assistant Professor in American Studies at the University of Maryland Baltimore County Stephanie Hawke is a project manager and fundraiser working on a range of projects aiming to engage communities with culturalheritage Contributors Gregory Ashworth Evita Busa Helen Graham Julian Hartley Stephanie Hawke Carl Hogsden Shatha Abu Khafajah Nicole King Bernadette Lynch Billie Lythberg Conal McCarthy Ashley Minner Wayne Ngata Bryony Onciul Elizabeth Pishief Gregory Ramshaw Philipp Schorch Justin Sikora Michelle Stefano Helen Tully John Tunbridge Museums and Communities Ivan Karp,Christine Mullen Kreamer,Steven Levine,1992-05-17 Contributors to this volume examine and illustrate struggles and collaborations among museums festivals tourism and historic preservation projects and the communities they represent and serve Essays include the role of museums in civil society the history of African American collections and experiments with museum community dialogue about the design of a multicultural society The Museum as a Space of Social Care Nuala Morse,2020-10-18 This book examines the practice of community engagement in museums through the notion of care It focuses on building an understanding of the logic of care that underpins this practice with a view to outlining new roles for museums within community health and social care This book engages with the recent growing focus on community participation in museum activities notably in the area of health and wellbeing It explores this theme through an analysis of the practices of community engagement workers at Tyne Wear Archives Museums in the UK It examines how this work is operationalised and valued in the museum and the institutional barriers to this practice It presents the practices of care that shape community led exhibitions and community engagement projects involving health and social care partners and their clients Drawing on the ethics of care and geographies of care literatures this text provides readers with novel perspectives for transforming the museum into a space of social care This book will appeal to museum studies scholars and professionals geographers organisational studies scholars as well as students interested in the social role of museums Museums and Anthropology in the Age of Engagement Christina Kreps,2019-10-18 Museums and Anthropology in the Age of Engagement considers changes that have been taking place in museum anthropology as it has been responding to pressures to be more socially relevant useful and accountable to diverse communities Based on the author s own research and applied work over the past 30 years the book gives examples of the wide ranging work being carried out today in museum anthropology as both an academic scholarly field and variety of applied public anthropology While it examines major trends that characterize our current age of engagement the book also critically examines the public role of museums and anthropology in colonial and postcolonial contexts namely in the US the Netherlands and Indonesia Throughout the book Kreps questions what purposes and interests museums and anthropology serve in these different times and places Museums and Anthropology in the Age of Engagement is a valuable resource for readers interested in an historical and comparative study of museums and anthropology and the forms engagement has taken It should be especially useful to students and instructors looking for a text that provides in one volume a history of museum anthropology and methods for doing critical reflexive museum ethnography and collaborative work A Museums and Community Toolkit American Alliance of Museums,2002 Through helpful hints logistical tips and documents A Museums and Community Toolkit helps museums plan successful museum community dialogues Museum Practice Conal McCarthy,2020-11-17 MUSEUM PRACTICE Edited by CONAL MCCARTHY Museum Practice covers the professional work carried out in museums and art galleries of all types including the core functions of management collections exhibitions and programs Some forms of museum practice are familiar to visitors yet within these diverse and complex institutions many practices are hidden from view such as creating marketing campaigns curating and designing exhibitions developing fundraising and sponsorship plans crafting mission statements handling repatriation claims dealing with digital media and more Focused on what actually occurs in everyday museum work this volume offers contributions from experienced professionals and academics that cover a wide range of subjects including policy frameworks ethical guidelines approaches to conservation collection care and management exhibition development and public programs From internal processes such as leadership governance and strategic planning to public facing roles in interpretation visitor research and community engagement and learning each essential component of contemporary museum practice is thoroughly discussed Museums and Innovations Zvezdana Antos,2017-01-06 This volume presents sixteen thoughtful essays which address innovative ways to present cultural heritage primarily in ethnographic and social history museums through recent permanent temporary and mobile exhibitions The essays included are taken from the different vantage points they prompt critical debate about new ways of thinking and working in museums of different sizes with regard for how we might work collaboratively towards a more equitable future Essential political issues related to power and the strong influences of the museum are addressed in each section especially with regards to the presentation of particular cultures and communities

Museums and Communities Viv Golding, Jen Walklate, 2019-01-22 This volume presents seventeen essays critically reflecting on the collaborative work of the contemporary ethnographic museum with diverse communities It invites the reader to think about the roles and values of museums internationally particularly the wide range of creative approaches that can progress dialogue and intercultural understanding in an age of migration that is marked by division and distrust Against a troubling global background of prejudice and misunderstanding where elections are increasingly returning right wing governments this timely book considers the power of an inclusive and transformative museum space specifically the movements from static sites where knowledge is transmitted to passive audiences towards potential contact zones where diverse community voices and visibilities are raised and new knowledge s actively constructed

Preserving Aboriginal Heritage, Technical and Traditional Approaches Carole Dignard, 2008 In September 2007 the Canadian Conservation Institute hosted an international symposium Preserving Aboriginal Heritage Technical and Traditional Approaches The goal of the symposium was to provide an opportunity for Aboriginal people and conservation specialists to learn from one another in an atmosphere of mutual respect about traditional technical ethical and intangible aspects of the conservation of Aboriginal material culture This book of proceedings reflects the structure and objectives of the symposium and provides useful and practical information on collaboration and the benefits of technical and traditional approaches It contains the text of all papers in the language of presentation an abstract for each paper in English and French and the text of all posters in English and French It will be useful for anyone involved in the preservation of Aboriginal heritage Pub desc
