Native Nostalgia Native Nostalgia:

Native Nostalgia Jacob Dlamini, 2009 Challenging the stereotype that black people who lived under South African apartheid have no happy memories of the past this examination into nostalgia carves out a path away from the archetypical musings Even though apartheid itself had no virtue the author himself a young black man who spent his childhood under apartheid insists that it was not a vast moral desert in the lives of those living in townships In this deep meditation on the experiences of those who lived through apartheid it points out that despite the poverty and crime there was still art literature music and morals that when combined determined the shape of black life during that era of repression The Routledge Handbook of Nostalgia Tobias Becker, Dylan Trigg, 2024-08-21 The Routledge Handbook of Nostalgia serves as a guide to the complex and often contradictory concept of nostalgia as well as the field of nostalgia studies more broadly Nostalgia is an area of intense interest across several disciplines as well as within society and culture more generally This handbook brings together an international interdisciplinary team of researchers to survey the current landscape and identify common trends achievements and gaps in existing literature Comprising 45 chapters the volume covers the following topics Disciplinary perspectives of nostalgias including philosophy history literature and psychology Conceptual aspects of nostalgia including homesickness temporality affectivity and memory Historical and political dimensions such as afro nostalgia populism feminism and queer nostalgia Spatial and material aspects of nostalgia including ruins regionalism and objects Media related nostalgia such as analogue and digital nostalgia reboots revivals gaming and graphic novels Essential reading for students and researchers working in nostalgia studies this book will also be beneficial to related disciplines such as philosophy anthropology geography history and literature cultural media heritage museum and film studies courses and more generally for readers interested in how the past is represented and used in the present District 9: Johannesburg as Nostalgic Dystopia Landi Raubenheimer, 2024-12-23 The film District 9 made waves as an allegory of apartheid on the big screen but it has not yet been given its rightful place as a landmark depiction within broader visual cultural studies of Johannesburg and cities in the Global South In this book Landi Raubenheimer argues that District 9's portrayal of Johannesburg reverberates within a larger body of representations of the city collectively shaping a unique visual idiom for the post apartheid city as nostalgic dystopia Delving deeply into District 9 Raubenheimer brings to light the fascination that images of the city as nostalgic dystopia has held for filmmakers photographers viewers and lovers of Johannesburg alike Historical trauma and memory Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela, Eric Ndushabandi, Kopano Ratele, 2021-12-06 How wounds from a previous generation may weigh on children and grandchildren contain much of interest Yet if we unpack the ghostly the eerie and the spectral in transgenerational hauntings if we allow for the suffering or the disturbed to forge social links such contacts may enable breaking into reconnections and afterlives One only needs to think of the near epidemic of rape in South Africa to sense violent hypermasculinity erupting as madness mediated by a history of brutal racialised reduction But it is also important to move beyond the brutalities and madness to consider the individual and collective refigurations surfacing out of layers of catastrophe Nancy Rose Hunt Conference Keynote Address Beyond Trauma Notes on a Word a Frame and a Diagnostic Category Historical Trauma and Memory Living with the Haunting Power of the Past is based on essays presented at a conference with the same name which was held in Kigali Rwanda in April 2019 The book gives readers front row seats as an interdisciplinary group of scholars from law psychology history the arts anthropology theology and philosophy address the complex matrix of the emotional legacies of historical trauma cultural legacies people interacting with their social and political environment and the interplay of these factors in different post conflict societies Refractive Realisms Megan Jones, 2025-03-27 Refractive Realisms positions the township as a lens through which to engage the South African canon endeavouring to provide a reorientation towards a black creative archive and surfacing under represented forms of literary and cultural expression The book converses with the long history of realism in black South African writing to show how the refractive realisms of the contemporary township simultaneously bear witness to precarity and articulate lively diversity It brings together narratives that take the reader through persuasive depictions of township life and its flexible identities the failures of post apartheid the possibilities that emerge from the ruins of historical injustice the practices of commodity consumption and the limits of race and gender discourses that align with non belonging to township spaces An incisive read on the literary and cultural forms of the twenty first century South African township this book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of literary studies identity politics cultural studies ethnicity and race sociology and African Studies

Experiments with Truth Hedley Twidle, 2019 Unusable pasts scandalous lives political betrayal confession and collaboration reading narrative non fiction across South Africa s unfinished transition Over the last decades South Africa has seen an outpouring of life writing and narrative non fiction Authors like Panashe Chigumadzi Jacob Dlamini Mark Gevisser Pumla Gobodo Madikizela Antjie Krog Sisonke Msimang Njabulo Ndebele Jonny Steinberg and Ivan Vladislavic have produced a compelling and often controversial body of work exploring the country s ongoing political and social transition with great ambition texture and risk Experiments with Truth is the first book length account of non fiction in South African literature It reads the country s transition as refracted through an array of documentary modes that are simultaneously refashioned and blurred into each other long form analytic journalism and reportage experiments in oral history microhistory and archival reconstruction life writing memoir and the essay It traces the strange and ethically complex process by which real people places and events are shuffled patterned and plotted in long form prose narrative While holding in mind the imperatives of testimony and witness so important to the struggle for liberation and the Truth and Reconciliation Commission the case studies here are increasingly drawn to a post TRC aesthetic works that engage with difficult inappropriate or unusable elements of the past and the unfinished project of social reconstruction in South Africa The author examines non fictions that are speculative formally innovative and sometimes experimental rather than informational or narrowly journalistic that explore difficult subjects like collaboration complicity confession and have embedded within them their own reflections on the problems of narrating within a scene of unresolved difference In this way southern African materials are placed in a global context and in dialogue with other important non fictional traditions that have emerged at moments of social rupture and transition Hedley Twidle is a writer teacher and researcher based in the English Department at the University of Cape Town He specialises in twentieth century southern African and world literatures as well as creative non fiction and the environmental humanities His essay collection Firepool Experiences in an Abnormal World was published in 2017

Historical Justice Klaus Neumann, 2017-10-02 The yearning for historical justice that is for the redress of past wrongs has become one of the defining features of our age Governments international bodies and civil society organisations address historical injustices through truth commissions tribunals official apologies and other transitional justice measures Historians produce knowledge of past human rights violations and museums memorials and commemorative ceremonies try to keep that knowledge alive and remember the victims of injustices In this book researchers with a background in history archaeology cultural studies literary studies and sociology explore the various attempts to recover and remember the past as a means of addressing historic wrongs Case studies include sites of persecution in Germany Argentina and Chile the commemoration of individual victims of Nazi Germany memories of life under South Africa's apartheid regime and the politics of memory in Israel and in Northern Ireland The authors critique memory highlight silences and absences explore how to engage with the ghosts of the past and ask what drives individuals including professional historians to strive for historical justice This book was originally published as a special issue of Rethinking History

The Solomon Islands and Their Natives Henry Brougham Guppy, 1887

Education as Humanisation Scherto Gill, Ulrike Niens, 2017-10-02 Over the past decades there has been a consistent and poignant ambiguity with regard to the role of education in the context of post conflict and divided societies working towards building peace Most recently global developments including the after effects of the Arab Spring the devastating wars in Syria and the refugee crisis in Europe have directed our attention once more to the part that education can play in building peace at many levels In this context it is timely to create a space for a focused inquiry and scholarly debate about peace oriented pedagogies and how they might affect the post conflict reconstruction in divergent settings Thus both the subject and the content of this book are important in the light of the current needs in many societies emerging from conflicted community relations In particular they propose a refreshing and transformative view of peace based on a humanising conception of education and dialogic pedagogy as a key avenue for peacebuilding Through both conceptual inquiries and empirical case studies the book will appeal to educational thinkers researchers practitioners policy makers NGO workers and the public in re examining some of the key concepts identifying pivotal underlying issues in the field Furthermore by offering a principled persuasive conceptual framework and by problematising implementations and interventions in practice this book can serve to provoke more appraisals evaluations and constructive critiques of humanisation and dialogic pedagogy in peacebuilding education This book was originally published as a special issue of Compare A Journal of Comparative and International Education Postmodern Nostalgia John J. Su,1999 Indian and White in the Northwest, Or, A History of Catholicity in Montana Lawrence Benedict Palladino,1894 Partial summary The plates in the first edition were not used in the second edition The plate following page 132 of the text reproduces a letter from Agnes an 11 year old Flathead girl about life at the Sisters school at the St Ignatius Mission A Comprehensive Dictionary of the English Language Joseph Emerson Worcester,1888 Pursuing a Native Movement in a Russian Space Patty Anne Gray,1998 Anomalies and curiosities of medicine; being an encyclopedic collection of George Milbry Gould,1896 Anomalies and curiosities of medicine George Milbry Gould,1898 The Journal of International Communication ,1994 The Journal of Mental Science ,1878 Vol 77 includes Yearbook of the Association 1931 Votes & Proceedings New South Wales.
