Online Process That World Deleuze Performances:

Deleuze and the Cinemas of Performance Elena del Rio,2008-06-25 This book offers a unique reconsideration of the performing body that privileges the notion of affective force over the notion of visual form at the centre of former theories of spectacle and performativity Drawing on Gilles Deleuze's philosophy of the body and on Deleuze Spinoza's relevant concepts of affect and expression Elena del Rio examines a kind of cinema that she calls affective performative The features of this cinema unfold via detailed and engaging discussions of the movements gestures and speeds of the body in a variety of films by Douglas Sirk Rainer W Fassbinder Sally Potter Claire Denis and David Lynch Key to the book's engagement with performance is a consistent attention to the body's powers of affection Beckett, Deleuze and Performance Daniel Koczy,2018-08-28 This book draws on the theatrical thinking of Samuel Beckett and the philosophy of Gilles Deleuze to propose a method for research undertaken at the borders of performance and philosophy Exploring how Beckett fabricates encounters with the impossible and the unthinkable in performance it asks how philosophy can approach what cannot be thought while honouring and preserving its alterity Employing its method it creates a series of encounters between aspects of Beckett's theatrical practice and a range of concepts drawn from Deleuze's philosophy Through the force of these encounters a new range of concepts is invented These provide novel ways of thinking affect and the body in performance the possibility of theatrical automation and the importance of failure and invention in our attempts to respond to performance encounters Further this book includes new approaches to Beckett's later theatrical work and provides an overview of Deleuze's conception of philosophical practice as an ongoing struggle to think with immanence Embodied Histories, Imagined Worlds, Emplaced Resistance Ashraf Abdelhay,Sinfree Makoni,Cristine Severo,2025-12-08 Contemporary sociolinguistic theorizing is concerned with the study of social solidarity in differential contexts of power so it must engage with protesting discourses and practices In two volumes Sociolinguistics of Protesting addresses the socio discursivity of protesting from different geopolitical perspectives and illustrates how protests are socio semiotically organized and narrated Volume 1 the current volume critically rethinks protest as a central sociolinguistic practice rather than an exception to an imagined social order Drawing on transdisciplinary and various case studies from the Arab revolutions to Hong Kong's Lennon Walls and South Africa's student uprisings this volume explores how language embodiment and space intersect in acts of resistance It is the first of a two volume set that reshapes the field's understanding of language in times of crisis and uprising In Volume 2 scholars explore the complex intersections between protest language and decolonial thought It challenges dominant linguistic ideologies by uncovering how language is wielded contested and reimagined in protests against racial gendered and colonial violence From Black feminist activism in the U S to anti mining movements in South Africa and pandemic protests in Chile the chapters examine how diverse embodied linguistic practices resist dominant power structures and give voice to marginalized communities Women in Storytelling Afra Kavanagh,2000 Live Digital Theatre Aleksandar Sasha Dundjerović, 2023-04-27 Live Digital Theatre explores the experiences of Interdisciplinary Performing Arts practitioners working on digital performance and in particular live digital theatre. Collaborating with world leading practitioners Kolectiv Theatre UK, Teatro Os Satyros Brazil and The Red Curtain International India this study investigates the ways to bring live digital performance into theatre training and performance making. The idea of Interdisciplinary Performative Pedagogies is placed within the context of the exploration of live digital theatre and is used to understand creative practices and how one can learn from these practices. The book presents a pedagogical approach to contemporary practices in digital performance from interdisciplinary live performance using digital technology to live Zoom theatre, YouTube mixed media recorded and live performance. The book also combines a series of case studies and pedagogical practices on live digital performance and intermedial theatre. This book will be of great interest to students and scholars in performing arts, digital arts, media and gaming.

Performance Art in China Thomas J. Berghuis, 2006 Performance Art in China takes as its subject one of the most dynamic and controversial areas of experimental art practice in China. In his comprehensive study Sydney based theorist and art historian Thomas J Berghuis introduces and investigates the idea of the role of the mediated subject of the acting body in art a notion grounded in the realization that the body is always present in art practice as well as its subsequent secondary representations. Through a series of in depth case studies Berghuis reveals how during the past 25 years Chinese performance artists have acted out their art often in opposition to the principles governing correct behavior in the public domain. In addition to a 25 year chronology of events a systematic index of places names and key terms as well as a bibliography and a glossary in English and Chinese this study also offers the reader numerous previously unpublished photos and documents.

Deleuze and Contemporary Art Stephen Zepke, Simon O'Sullivan, 2010 Deleuze and Contemporary Art maps the relations and resonances between the important and influential twentieth century French philosophers Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari and contemporary art practice.

Sounding Emerging Media Claire Fitch, 2022-04-19 Sounding Emerging Media details a practice based approach to sonic art and electroacoustic composition drawing on methodologies inspired by the production of electronic literature and game development. Using the structural concepts identified by Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari the book is based around ideas related to labels such as Assemblage, Strata, Smooth and Striated Space, Temporal Space and The Fold. The processes employed to undertake this research involved the creation of original texts, the development of frameworks for improvisation, the use of recordings within the process and implementation of techniques drawn from the practices of electroacoustic composition and the use of ideas borrowed from electronic literature, publishing and game development. The results have helped to shape a compositional style which draws on these processes individually or collectively drawing on practice often seen in game development, visual scores and composition using techniques found in electroacoustic music. Providing a journey through the landscape of emerging digital media Sounding Emerging Media envisages a world where the composer, user, listener all become part of a continuum of collective artistry.

This book is the ideal guide to the history and creation of audio for innovative digital media formats and represents crucial reading for both students and practitioners from aspiring composers to experienced professionals Designing for a Digital World Neil Leach, 2002-03-29 Digital technologies are changing the way that we live and work today. But what impact are they having on the discipline of architecture? This volume brings together some of the world's leading voices from digital theory, technology and design to address this question. With a discussion ranging from broad cultural concerns to new techniques of construction, Designing for a Digital World offers a snapshot of informed opinion at a crucial juncture in the history of the discipline. Constructions of Tectonics for the Postindustrial World, 1997 Deleuze and Performance Laura Cull, 2009-05-21 Was performance important to Deleuze? Is Deleuze important to performance? To its practical as well as theoretical research? What are the implications of Deleuze's philosophy of difference, process and becoming for Performance Studies, a field in which many continue to privilege the notion of performance as representation as anchored by its imitation of an identity, the world, the play, the self? Deleuze and Performance is a collection of new essays dedicated to Deleuze's writing on theatre and to the productivity of his philosophy for re-thinking performance. This book provides rigorous analyses of Deleuze's writings on theatre practitioners such as Artaud, Beckett and Carmelo Bene as well as offering innovative readings of historical and contemporary performance including performance art, dance, new media, performance, theatre and opera which use Deleuze's concepts in exciting new ways. Can philosophy follow Deleuze in overcoming the antitheatrical tradition embedded in its history, perhaps even reconsidering what it means to think in the light of the embodied insights of performance's practitioners? Experts from the fields of Performance Studies and Deleuze Studies come together in this volume and strive to examine these and other issues in a manner that will be challenging yet accessible to students and established scholars alike.

Internet Invention Gregory L. Ulmer, 2003 A next generation textbook for online writing and design, Internet Invention supplements existing print and web primers on HTML and graphics production with a program that puts these tools and techniques to work with a purpose. Designed as a passage from the more familiar rhetoric of the page to the less familiar one of the screen, this text is a hybrid workbook reader theory with chapters divided into the following sub genres: Studio, Remakes, Lectures, The Ulmer File and Office. These sections offer a sequence of interconnected Web writing assignments, rhetorical meditations, scholarly discussions, case studies and pedagogical metacommentary which together combine to form a truly unique contribution to the body of rhetorical theory and practice in the age of the digital text. Ulmer uses the invention of literacy by the Ancient Greeks as a model for the invention of electracy which is to digital media what literacy is to print Internet Invention brings the students into the process of invention in every sense of the word The book takes students through a series of Web assignments and exercises designed to organize their creative imagination using a virtual consulting agency The EmerAgency as a vehicle for students to discover the potential for the Web to act as a setting for community problem solving Leonardo Music Journal ,1996 Internet Music Andrew Hugill,2005 Pedagogical Machines Simon Kitto,Vaughan Higgins,2010 This work investigates the effects of information communication technologies ICTs as techniques for neoliberal or what we refer to as advanced liberal governing within universities using a regional Australian university as the site of study World Weavers Kin-yuen Wong,Gary Westfahl,Amy Kit-sze Chan,2005 A study on the relationship between globalization and science fiction offering a broad range of theoretical approaches and an overview of the field Fuse Magazine ,2003 Radical Philosophy ,1999 Artbibliographies Modern ,2004
