Bernstein, 2018-09-24 A systemic transformation is underway in architectural design, engineering, and construction. The discipline and profession of architecture is being reshaped in a moment where information, insight, and predictions generated during the design process move into construction, no longer essentially via drawings. Other, more profound digital techniques yield fundamentally different workflows, responsibilities, and business models for architects. This book offers a comprehensive framework, detailed analysis, and critical assessment of the challenges and opportunities inherent in those changes. The author sets out to provide direction for a new era in architectural creation that can be understood and managed by a profession which must become better equipped to direct its future. Human Resource Management in Public Service Evan

M. Berman, James S. Bowman, Jonathan P. West, Montgomery R. Van Wart, 2019-01-31 Recognizing the inherent tensions and contradictions that result from managing people in organizations, Human Resource Management in Public Service: Paradoxes, Processes, and Problems offers provocative and thorough coverage of the complex issues of management in the public sector. Continuing the award-winning tradition of previous editions, this Sixth Edition helps you to understand complex managerial puzzles and explores the stages of the employment process, including recruitment, selection, training, legal rights, and responsibilities, compensation, and appraisal. Grounded in real public service experiences, the book emphasizes hands-on skill building and problem solving. New to the Sixth Edition: Ethics case studies have been added to all the chapters, enabling you to learn about a variety of ethical situations that come up in management. Updated and consolidated recruiting strategies offer you a window into the most current methods used in the recruitment process and provide insight into the job seeker's perspective. New examples from a broad range of local, state, federal, and international settings enable you to apply key concepts to common management issues. And Justice for All Tom Regan, Donald VanDeVeer, 1982 Human-powered
