

My Child

*From the moment you lay in my arms,
A gift from God you were;
With tiny hands and big wide eyes
Just sparkling at me there.*

*A little child so full of hope,
Whose life was in my hands.
I prayed to God to give me strength
To help you learn to stand.*

*You touched my face with your little hand
With so much love for me.*

*Imitating things I'd do
And things that you would see.*

*You learned to walk and then to talk,
You learned to say my name,
Each day became a special day,
And none of them the same.*

*You were mine to care for,
And I loved it every day;
Every touch, every look,
Every smile along the way.*

*From the moment you lay in my arms,
A gift from God - I knew;
A child, a friend - someone to love,
A reason to pull through.*

My Child Poem For Handicapped Child:

To Provide Education for Physically Handicapped Children United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Education and Labor,1937 To Provide Education for Physically Handicapped Children. Hearings... on S. 1634... Apr. 8, 9, 1937.(75-1)

United States. U.S. Congress. Senate. Committee on education and labor,1937 Play for Children with Special Needs Christine Macintyre,2010-01-05 This fully revised edition of Play for Children with Special Needs includes new research findings and explains their implications for practice Parenting A Child with Special Needs Bernadette Thomas,2011-09-01

What is the actual experience of parents who live with and love children with special needs After the initial shock of becoming a parent now complicated by being the parent of a child with special needs as well as having only a confused idea of what may lie ahead how do they find a way forward to start to build a relationship with their child The stories that emerge from Parenting A Child with Special Needs are of great passion and sometimes pain and above all the courageous dedication needed to bring up a disabled child The editors Bernadette Thomas and Cindy Dowling are parents of disabled children who write with real and practical insight into bringing up a disabled child and the relationship it creates While Neil Nicoll gives a professional perspective into the issues raised Parents often come to see their children as a gift and the dominant note struck is of the intensity of the relationships that develop between these parents and their children relationships that are the most fulfilling part of both their lives They tell it as it is the joy and the pain and these are stories that all parents will recognise Active Social Work with Children with Disabilities Julie Adams,Diana

Leshone,2025-02-28 Active Social Work with Children with Disabilities provides a comprehensive social worker s guide to working with children with disabilities exploring current issues from the perspective of both the social worker and the family Many people are afraid of working in this field of social work and this book dispels the myths and fears about working with children with disabilities and build the social worker s confidence in an area that is often left behind within the social work world The book will help you to undertake a social work assessment with a child with a disability consider the holistic needs of the child and the family explore the impact of grief and loss upon the family build emotional intelligence and resilience within families communicate with children with disabilities communication techniques The new SEND legislation and issues around Safeguarding of Children with Disabilities and Transition to Adult Social Care for the young person are explored and activities and scenarios help you to critically reflect and explore theory and practice further The Kennedy Family and the Story of Mental Retardation Edward Shorter,2000 According to Edward Shorter just forty years ago the institutions housing people with mental retardation MR had become a national scandal The mentally retarded who lived at home were largely isolated and a source of family shame Although some social stigma still attaches to the people with developmental disabilities a range of conditions including what until recently was called mental retardation they now actively participate in our society and are entitled by law to educational social and medical services The immense improvement in their daily lives and life chances came about in no small part because affected families mobilized for change but also because the Kennedy family made mental retardation its single great cause Long a generous benefactor of MR related organizations Joseph P Kennedy made MR the special charitable interest of the family foundation he set up in the 1950s Although he gave all of his children official roles he involved his daughter Eunice in performing its actual work identifying appropriate recipients of awards and organizing the foundation s activities With unique access to family and foundation papers Shorter brings to light the Kennedy family s strong commitment to public service showing that Rose and Joe taught their children by precept and example that their wealth and status obligated them to perform good works Their parents expected each of them to apply their considerable energies to making a difference Eunice Kennedy Shriver took up that charge and focused her organizational and rhetorical talents on putting MR on the federal policy agenda As a sister of the President of the United States she had access to the most powerful people in the country and drew their attention to the desperate situation of families affected by mental retardation Her efforts made an enormous difference resulting in unprecedented public attention to MR and new approaches to coordinating medical and social services Along with her husband R Sargent Shriver she made the Special Olympics a international annual event in order to encourage people with mental retardation to develop their skills and discover the joy of achievement She emerges from these pages as a remarkable and dedicated advocate for people with developmental disabilities Shorter s account of mental retardation presents an unfamiliar view of the Kennedy family and adds a significant chapter to the history of disability in this country Author note Edward Shorter is a Professor at the University of Toronto where he holds the Hannah Chair in the History of Medicine He is the author of A History of Psychiatry from the Era of the Asylum to the Age of Prozac as well as many other books in the fields of history and medicine The Garden and the Handicapped Child Patricia Elliott,Brenda Naylor,Elizabeth Watkins,1978 Mental Health of the Child: a Prelude to Effective Living Oklahoma.
