Generational Shifts in Contemporary German Culture Laurel Cohen-Pfister, Susanne Vees-Gulani, 2010 The concept of the generation in today s German culture and literature and its role in German identity In the debates since 1945 on German history and culture the concept of generations has become ever more prominent Recent and ongoing shifts in how the various generations are seen and see themselves in relation to history and to each other have taken on key importance in contemporary German cultural studies The seismic events of twentieth century German history are no longer solely first generational lived experiences but are also historical moments seen through the eyes of successor generations The generation seen as a category of memory thus holds a key to major shifts in German identity The changing generational perspectives of German writers and filmmakers not only reflect but also influence these trends exposing both the expected differences between generational views and unexpected continuities Moreover as younger artists reframe recent history older generations like the 1968ers are also contributing to these shifts by reassessing their own experiences and cultural contributions This volume of new essays applies current discourse on generations in German culture to contemporary works dealing with major sociohistorical events since the Nazi period Contributors Svea Br unert Laurel Cohen Pfister Friederike Eigler Thomas C Fox Katharina Gerstenberger Erin McGlothlin Brad Prager Ilka Rasch Susanne Rinner Caroline Schaumann Maria Stehle Reinhild Steingr ver Susanne Vees Gulani Laurel Cohen Pfister is Associate Professor of German at Gettysburg College and Susanne Vees Gulani is Assistant Professor of German and Comparative Literature at Case Western Reserve University

Germans as Victims in the Literary Fiction of the Berlin Republic Stuart Taberner, Karina Berger, 2009 An opening section on the 1950s a decade of intense literary engagement with German victimhood before the focus shifted to German perpetration provides context drawing parallels but also noting differences between the immediate postwar period and today The second section focuses on key texts written since the mid 1990s and examines shifts in perspectives on the Nazi past on perpetration and victimhood on ordinary Germans and on the balance between historical empathy and condemnation BOOK JACKET Memory Matters Caroline Schaumann, 2008-08-27 Memory Matters juxtaposes in tripartite structure texts by a child of German bystanders Wolf an Austrian Jewish child survivor Kl ger a daughter of Jewish migr s Honigmann a daughter of an officer involved in the German resistance Bruhns a granddaughter of a baptized Polish Jew

Maron and a granddaughter of German refugees from East Prussia D ckers Placed outside of the distorting victim perpetrator Jewish German man woman and war postwar binary it becomes visible that the texts neither complete nor contradict each other but respond to one another by means of inspiration reverberation refraction incongruity and ambiguity Focusing on genealogies of women the book delineates a different cultural memory than the counting of male inflected generations and a male dominated Holocaust and postwar literature canon It examines intergenerational conflicts and the negotiation of memories against the backdrop of a complicated mother daughter relationship that follows unpredictable patterns and provokes both discord and empathy Schaumann s approach questions the assumption that German gentile and German Jewish postwar experiences are necessarily diametrically opposed i e respond to a negative symbiosis and uncovers intersections and continuities in addition to conflicts

Fatherhood in Late Modernity Mechtild Oechsle, Ursula Müller, Sabine Hess, 2012-08-09 Changes in Fatherhood How do structural changes in the welfare state in gender relations and work affect concepts and realities of fatherhood The authors analyse cultural images and representations of fatherhood varieties of fatherhood in relation to social backgrounds organisational infl uences as well as the impact of political and legal interventions on confi gurations of fatherhood With an interdisciplinary approach this book s contributions investigate the sometimes contradictory relationship between cultural representations and social practices of fatherhood They contextualise diverse fatherhoods in various social backgrounds ethnicities ages and different national contexts Refl ecting methodological challenges is crucial to the volume s approach Which parameters are used to quantify change Which links and interactions between cultural individual organizational and societal dimensions do exist regarding the development of new social confi gurations of fatherhood How can the complex interaction between structural constraints and agency be analysed Can certain agents of change be identi fi ed How can social change be conceptualized This volume links to international comparative research and shows how fruitful it can be to break disciplinary boundaries
