Islam, Friend Or Foe? Emilio Platti, 2008 In this study Emilio Platti dares to enquire directly into the compatibility between Islam and Christianity as well as between Islam and modernity He insists that the best way to answer such questions is to return to the origins of the Islamic tradition What precisely does the Qur'an have to say about Christians How can we explain the resentment towards the West that seems to characterize some Muslims Does the so-called clash of civilizations have its roots in Islamic theology How did the negative portrait of Muslims that was characteristic of the Latin Middle Ages come about Is it possible to speak in a monolithic fashion about Islam Is it really the case that Muslims must set about developing a new identity What is the relationship between Islamic law and modern theories of human rights What does it mean to be a believer and might this not be the real heart of the tensions and controversies that mark so much of the contemporary encounter between Islam and the West Platti's study engages both classical and contemporary readings of the Islamic tradition and offers a nuanced and challenging view not only of its past but of its present and of the directions it might take in the years ahead
