Triumph of Dreams Ruth P. Douglass,2010-04      The Orator J. J. Koehler,2010-01-07 In this book of political fiction the author is trying to convey a message to the Latino people of this country and at the same time attempting to unmask the ugly face of racism as it exists today in the U S not only for Chicanos but also for other minorities in America He presents and counters all those false stigmas that have been laid at the feet of the Chicanos and Latinos of this country He presents the absurdity of the Chicanos and immigrants from Mexico being called aliens illegal and wetbacks He also addresses the biases in our legal system and how laws are used as vehicles of discrimination and oppression J J Koehler believes in his soul that laws as well as the hearts of men can be changed by presenting the truth from the perspective of the people who are the victims of these unjust laws and revealing the suppression these laws cause He exposes the lies and the real reasons why Latinos have been targeted in the psychological warfare being waged on them as a people He believes that violence is not the answer but education is He advocates compassion love and kindness as the only way true and lasting change can be realized order to do anything about our nightmares we must take a cold look and Red Line casts the coldest eye in recent memory Jim Harrison The Southwest as portrayed in this Kerouac esque odyssey betokening the death of the American frontier spirit is a landscape of broken dreams violence uprooted lives and fallen idols Miles distant from tourist poster images of the Sunbelt this vista of narrow greed diminished expectations and despoilation of nature sizzles with the harsh unrelenting glare of a hyperrealist painting Publishers Weekly Carlito's Way Edwin Torres,1993 Out of the Past Shirl Jensen,1993-01-28 A mesmerizing novel of spirits lost and love found After her divorce Debbie Dillon comes to a small town to begin again But from the moment she moves into the old Muller house she is haunted by the restless spirit of Kate Muller a beautiful woman who lived over a century ago Soon a sinister evil stalks Debbie and her only hope for survival is locked within Kate s tragic past Star of the Wilderness Karle Wilson Baker,1942 The Peacock Sheds His Tail Alice Tisdale Hobart,1946
