Gendering the GOP Catherine N. Wineinger, 2022 In Gendering the GOP Catherine N Wineinger argues that to truly understand the evolution of women's congressional representation it is necessary to move beyond an analysis of legislative behavior and toward an analysis of intraparty gender dynamics Unlike previous research on women in Congress Wineinger focuses exclusively on the experiences of Republican congresswomen to uncover some of the gendered implications of congressional polarization Developing a novel theory of partisan gender identity defined as a categorical identity that sits at the intersection of one's partisan affiliation and gender identity Gendering the GOP argues that Republican women in Congress are not merely gender blind partisans In fact polarization and party competition have incentivized Republican women to organize around their partisan gender identity and distinguish themselves from both Democratic women and Republican men. In so doing, Republican congresswomen have increased their visibility as party messengers while simultaneously upholding a party culture that limits women's presence and power in the institution. Through extensive interviews with women members of Congress and in-depth analyses of House floor speeches, Wineinger details how women have both navigated and shaped existing gender dynamics within the House GOP conference.

Teaching Anti-Fascism Michael Vavrus, 2022-05-06 This timely book examines how fascist ideology has taken hold among certain segments of American society and how this can be addressed in curriculum and instruction. Vavrus presents middle secondary and college educators and their students with a conceptual framework for enacting a critical multicultural pedagogy by analyzing discriminatory discourse and recommending civic anti-fascist steps people can take right now. For teacher education programs and policymakers, anti-fascist civic assessment rubrics are provided. To help clarify contemporary debates over what can be taught in public schools, an advance organizer highlights contested and misunderstood terminology. Featuring historical and contemporary patterns of fascist politics, this accessible text is organized in four parts: Good Trouble, Unpacking Ideological Orientations, Indicators of Colonial Proto-Fascism and U.S. Fascist Politics, and An Anti-Fascist Reading of the World. Readers will come away with a deeper knowledge base that marshalls a century of anti-fascist actions in response to contemporary acts of racism, anti-Semitism, Islamophobia, gender and sexuality discrimination, bias against Latinx and migrant populations, and other actions that undermine our democracy and harm marginalized students and their families and communities. Book Features: A groundbreaking framework for incorporating anti-fascist pedagogical concepts into multicultural education; Descriptions of common characteristics of historical fascism, far-right extremism, and anti-fascism; Anti-fascist assessment rubrics for teacher educators; Guidance to assist classroom teachers in contextualizing current anti-democracy events; Recommended and annotated anti-fascist background readings informed by critical theoretical and intersectional perspectives.

Voting the Gender Gap Lois Duke Whitaker, 2010-10-01 This book concentrates on the gender gap in voting, the difference in the proportion of women and men voting for the same candidate. Evident in every presidential election since 1980, this polling phenomenon reached a high of 11 percentage points in the 1996 election. The contributors discuss the history, complexity, and ways of analyzing the gender gap, the gender gap in relation to partisanship, motherhood, ethnicity, and the impact of parental status on the gender gap, and the gender gap in races involving female candidates. Voting the Gender Gap analyzes trends in voting while probing how women's political empowerment and gender affect American politics and the electoral process. Contributors are Susan J. Carroll, Erin Cassese, Cal Clark, Janet M. Clark, M. Margaret Conway, Kathleen A. Dolan, Laurel Elder, Kathleen A. Frankovic, Steven Greene, Leonie Huddy, Mary Kate Lizotte, Barbara Norrander, Margie Omero, and Lois Duke Whitaker.
