Mindful Learning David B. Strahan, 1997 Today's teachers face unique challenges They feel pressure to raise test scores and to cover the curriculum At the same time their students need more nurturing and guidance than ever Mindful Learning shows how successful teachers put caring into action to provide both personal support and instructional enrichment Using this approach teachers integrate efforts to care for students as people the affective portion of the curriculum with efforts to extend their understanding of content the academic dimension of instruction In each chapter of Mindful Learning Strahan illustrates strategies that help students maximize academic learning and make better choices about behavior These strategies combine what teachers have learned about how the mind works best with what researchers have learned about how teachers most effectively promote learning The concept of Mindful Learning incorporates Gardner's Theory of Multiple Intelligences Glaser's Reality Therapy and Goleman's Emotional Intelligence The result is a flexible framework that has proven successful in promoting achievement and self discipline Each chapter features classroom applications that are ready to teach as well as a summary of relevant research A CHOICE Magazine Outstanding Academic Book of 1998 The
