An Introduction to Intercultural Communication Fred E. Jandt, 2024-12-05 An Introduction to Intercultural Communication prepares students to successfully navigate our increasingly interconnected global community by introducing essential communication skills and concepts with the goal of cultivating intercultural communication competencies when interacting with different cultures and ethnic groups. Best selling author Fred E. Jandt offers students unique insights into intercultural communication at home and abroad through a focus on history, culture, and popular media. Emphasis is also placed on the important roles that stories, personal experiences, and self-reflection play in building our intercultural understanding and competence. The Eleventh Edition presents the most extensive revision of the text, including tying chapter learning objectives to the content, a new Point Counterpoint feature to present both sides of controversial issues in intercultural communication to aid in developing critical thinking skills and current examples that speak to the changing dynamics of our global community.

Learning Queer Identity in the Digital Age Kay Siebler, 2016-05-31 This book explores through specific analysis of media representations, personal interviews, and historical research how the digital environment perpetuates harmful and limiting stereotypes of queerness. Siebler argues that heteronormativity has co-opted queer representations largely in order to sell goods, surgeries, and lifestyles reinforcing instead of disrupting the masculine and feminine heterosexual binaries through capitalist consumption. Learning Queer Identity in the Digital Age focuses on different identity populations (gay, lesbian, transgender) and examines the theories (queer, feminist, and media theories) in conjunction with contemporary representations of each identity group. In the twenty-first century, social media, dating sites, social activist sites, and videos/films are primary educators of social identity. For gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgendered, and transsexual peoples, these digital interactions help shape queer identities and communities.

Gender and Sexual Identities in Transition José Santaemilia, Patricia Bou, 2008 The aim of this volume is to offer an international panorama of gendered and sexualised experiences with new and original data collected from a variety of cultural settings and sociopolitical contexts. We look at many parts of the world (Japan, Sweden, Poland, Cyprus, Spain, US, Australia, Canada, Hungary) with different assumptions and expectations, often revealing various research practices and traditions. Gendered or sexualized discourses are unstable constructions in permanent transition in a perpetual struggle to gain social legitimacy and to counter the workings of opposite discourses. They constitute privileged vantage points from which one can observe and judge power relationships. New identities are created and reproduced, refused and challenged. This volume explores among other issues the perpetuation of hegemonic masculinity in Evangelical universities, the pharmaceutical industry, TM's promotion of biometaphors involving a shopping strategy which revolves around compulsory heterosexuality, the perpetuation of Greek Cypriot men's sexual superiority over women, the Catholic Church's attempt to impose a restrictive view of religion and of sexual ethics, the consolidation of American TV shopping channels as a setting where middle class femininity and consumption are linked stereotypically the negotiation of gender and sex related norms in groups of British Bangladeshi girls Even heterosexuality as the unmarked form of sexual identity and the primary site for the reproduction of gender difference needs to reassert its normative and prescriptive status maybe through the silent workings of tradition By suggesting the concept of transition we resist seeing the idea of identity as a fixed and definitive category Gender and sexual identities are never at rest One is never finished developing into a woman or a man or any other gender sexual identity Contributors include Joan Pujolar Andrea Simon Maeda Allyson Jule Stina Ericsson Agnieszka Kie kiewicz Janowiak Joanna Pawelczyk N 3ra Schleicher Elli Doukanari Pilar Garc c s Conejos Lidia Tanaka Jos c Santaemilia and Pia Pichler Identity and Myth in Sports Documentaries Zachary Ingle,David M. Sutera,2013 Nonfiction films about sports have been around for decades yet few scholarly articles have been published on these works In Identity and Myth in Sports Documentaries editors Zachary Ingle and David M Sutera have assembled a collection of essays that show how myth and identity national religious ethnic and racial are constructed perpetuated or questioned in documentaries produced in the United States France Australia Germany and Japan This collection is divided into three sections American Identity and Myth contains essays on consumerism religion in sports and post 9 11 America Race and Ethnicity examines the ways in which African American Mexican American and Jewish identity are portrayed in the documentaries under discussion Global Perspectives features films and TV series produced outside of the United States or those that provide perspectives on the international sport scene Spanning several decades the landmark documentaries discussed in this volume include Hoop Dreams The Endless Summer The Life and Times of Hank Greenberg Olympia and Tokyo Olympiad and address such subjects as baseball football basketball boxing soccer surfing and the Olympics The essays pose such questions as How are notions of the American dream involved in athletes aspirations How do media texts from Australia or France construct Australian and French identity respectively and How did filmmakers such as Leni Riefenstahl Kon Ichikawa and Bud Greenspan infuse their Olympic documentaries with national ideology despite being intended for an international audience By tackling these subjects Identity and Myth in Sports Documentaries is an intriguing read for scholars students and the general public alike Rebirthing a Nation Wendy K. Z. Anderson,2021-04-22 Although US history is marred by institutionalized racism and sexism postracial and postfeminist attitudes drive our polarized politics Violence against people of color transgender and gay people and women soar upon the backdrop of Donald Trump Tea Party affiliates alt right members like Richard Spencer and right wing political commentators like Milo Yiannopoulos who defend their racist and sexist commentary through legalistic claims of freedom of speech While more institutions recognize the volatility of these white men s speech few notice or have thoughtfully considered the role of white nationalist alt right and conservative white women s messages that organizationally preserve white supremacy In Rebirthing a Nation White Women Identity Politics and the Internet author Wendy K Z Anderson details how white nationalist and alt right women refine racist rhetoric and web design as a means of protection and simultaneous instantiation of white supremacy which conservative political actors including Sarah Palin Donald Trump Kellyanne Conway Sarah Huckabee Sanders and Ivanka Trump have amplified through transnational politics By validating racial fears and political divisiveness through coded white identity politics postfeminist and motherhood discourse functions as a colorblind gilded cage Rebirthing a Nation reveals how white nationalist women utilize colorblind racism within digital space exposing how a postfeminist framework becomes fodder for conservative white women s political speech to preserve institutional white supremacy
