Assessment in Music Education: from Policy to Practice Don Lebler, Gemma Carey, Scott D. Harrison, 2014-11-03 The contributions to this volume aim to stimulate discussion about the role of assessment in the learning experiences of students in music and other creative and performing arts settings. The articles offer insights on how assessment can be employed in the learning setting to enhance outcomes for students both during their studies at higher education institutions and after graduation. An international group of leading researchers offers an exciting array of papers that focus on the practice of assessment in music particularly in higher education settings. Contributions reflect on self, peer and alternative assessment practices in this environment. There is a particular emphasis on the alignment between assessment, curriculum structure and pedagogy.

Fitness Trainer Essentials: for the Personal Trainer with Online Study Tools 12 Months Tony

Attridge, Martine Felice, 2015-10-12 Beat your personal best by working the core to becoming a Fitness Trainer. This Australian internationally recognised text has been designed to assist students undertaking the SIS40215 Certificate IV in Fitness qualification studying to become personal or fitness trainers. The text contains core and elective units to support a range of fitness specialisations. Fitness Trainer Essentials 3e teaches the basics of fitness and nutrition principles, covers more on functional testing and nutritional assessment and guidelines. With a shift to full colour throughout and an abundance of new and improved images, charts and diagrams, this new edition is the most comprehensive text reflecting current industry standards and practices. Fitness Trainer Essentials 3e assumes that the reader has acquired the Certificate III in Fitness qualification. Therefore the topics covered in the text by Marchese have not been repeated in this text. Additional review questions are also available to retouch on key points from a Certificate III perspective.

Envisioning Music Teacher Education Susan Wharton Conkling, 2015-05-27 This volume will contain selected proceedings from the 2013 Symposium on Music Teacher Education sponsored by NAfME's Society for Music Teacher Education and hosted at University of North Carolina. After an introduction written by SMTE Chair Doug Orzolek, the initial chapter will represent the keynote address of the symposium by Karen Hamerness, Director of Program Research for the Bard Master of Arts in Teaching Program. Hamerness will bring her comparative work with music teacher educators in Finland and Norway to bear in her address. From Inspiring Visions to Everyday Practices: Exploring Vision and Practice in Music Teacher Education, Hamerness's research distills into three main themes. To mitigate against the fragmentation that characterizes so much of contemporary education teacher education programs must 1. promote a clear vision of teachers and teaching, 2. be coherent, reflecting shared understanding of teaching and learning among faculty and students, 3. be built around a strong core curriculum that is deeply tied to the practices of teaching. These three themes will orient the remainder of chapters in the volume, which will come from invited primary presenters at the 2013 Symposium. Due to selectivity of blind peer review, twenty one percent accept rate, these presentations represent the most rigorous research and best practices grounded in research that the music
