Overcoming Tradition and Modernity Robert D. Lee, 2019-08-28 Authenticity has begun to rival development as a key to understanding the political aspirations of the Islamic world Almost everywhere modernity has laid waste to tradition those habits and practices deemed to be timeless and true Imperialism carried European notions of progress into Muslim dominated parts of the globe and subsequently Muslim The Time of Turāth Harald Viersen, 2024-12-02 Recent Arab intellectual debates are often described as revolving around Arab Islamic cultural heritage truth and the role that it ought to play in modern society This debate is standardly characterized as a confrontation between traditionalists and modernists the former idolizing an authentic heritage the latter blaming traditionalism for Arab society's inability to modernize This study argues that this standard narrative has become overly dominant making it impossible for different perspectives to be either voiced or heard It calls for a critical review of how we think about contemporary Arab thought through an analysis of the progressive linear temporal structure underlying the authenticity/modernity dichotomy Looking in detail at three Arab intellectuals of the last fifty years Zak Najib Ma'mun Adonis and Abd al Rahman al-Sayid the study shows how this temporal structure underlies their thinking but also how their efforts to break away from it build on a critique of its temporal basis This analysis in turn enables an overhaul of the authenticity/modernity paradigm which not only leads to a richer critical engagement with contemporary Arab thought but also brings out its moral dimensions The Islamic World and the West Kai Hafez, Mary Ann Kenny, 2000-01-01 The anthology is an introduction to political cultures in the Islamic world and into relations between the West and Islam It details its analysis in country studies on Algeria Iran Egypt Morocco Turkey Bosnia Israel Palestine Iraq Central Asia and Pakistan Edinburgh Companion to the Arab Novel in English Nouri Gana, 2015-04-17 Opening up the field of diasporic Anglo-Arab literature to critical debate this companion spans from the first Arab novel in 1911 to the resurgence of the Anglo-Arabic novel in the last 20 years There are chapters on authors such as Ameen Rihani Ahdaf

The Muslim World Book Review ,1997      Journal of Palestine Studies ,1999      Muslims in Modern Turkey Sena Karasipahi,2008-12-18 Modern Turkey is the site of a powerful Islamic revival with a strong intellectual elite dedicated to the overthrow of secular modernism Why have modern Muslim intellectuals turned against the ideals of Kemalism on which the modern Turkish nation state is founded What does this reveal about the future of Turkey And how are Islamic intellectuals in Turkey affected by developments in the Middle East Muslims in Modern Turkey is the first book to analyse this phenomenon tracing the evolution of Muslim intellectual thought from the 1980s to the present day It focuses on six leading Muslim thinkers Ali Bula Rasim zden ren smet zel lhan Kutluer Ersin Nazif G rdo an and Abdurrahman Dilipak who belong to a single school and share a novel understanding of Islam They act as public intellectuals who aim to reform and enlighten society by educating them and raising their awareness of Islamic values arguing not for the compatibility of Islam and European values but the fundamental superiority of Islam over secular democracy Sena Karasipahi places the Turkish experience in its broader international context and shows how Turkish Islamic intellectuals are affected by the earlier Muslim intellectuals and revivalists in the Arab world and in Turkey This important study makes connections with the Islamic revival process throughout the contemporary Middle East as well as with comparable movements in Turkey s own past making this a crucial contribution to an understanding of contemporary Islamic political thinking
