Migration In The Middle East And Mediterranean:

Migration in the Middle East and Mediterranean Martin Baldwin-Edwards, Panteion Panepistēmio Koinōnikōn kai Politikōn Epistēmōn. University Research Institute for Urban Environment and Human Resources. Mediterranean Migration Observatory, Global Commission on International Migration, 2005

Migration, Security, and Citizenship in the Middle East P. Seeberg, Z. Eyadat, 2013-08-13 This volume addresses new tendencies related to migration from a Middle Eastern and Mediterranean perspective and with an emphasis on security and citizenship. Contributors aim not only to intervene in scholarly debates surrounding citizenship and migration but also to contribute to policy oriented discussions related to migration

Human Security and Migration in Europe's Southern Borders Susana Ferreira, 2018-12-13 This book examines the management of migratory flows in the Mediterranean within an international security perspective. The intense migratory flows registered during the year 2015 and the tragedies in the Mediterranean Sea have tested the mechanisms of the Union's immigration and asylum policies and its ability to respond to humanitarian crises. Moreover these flows of varying intensities and geographies represent a threat to the internal security of the EU and its member states. By using Spain and Italy as case studies the author theorizes that the EU given its inability to adopt and implement a common policy to effectively manage migratory flows on its Southern border uses a deterrence strategy based on minimum common denominators

Migration, Security, and Citizenship in the Middle East P. Seeberg, Z. Eyadat, 2013-08-13 This volume addresses new tendencies related to migration from a Middle Eastern and Mediterranean perspective and with an emphasis on security and citizenship. Contributors aim not only to intervene in scholarly debates surrounding citizenship and migration but also to contribute to policy oriented discussions related to migration

Raptor Migration in Israel and the Middle East Guy M. Kirwan, Reuven Yosef, 2000

Migration, Refugees and Human Security in the Mediterranean and MENA Marion Boulby, Kenneth Christie, 2018-03-15 This book focuses on the Mediterranean MENA migration crisis and explores the human security implications for migrants and refugees in this troubled region. Since the Arab uprisings of 2010-2011 the Middle East and North Africa region has experienced major political transformations and called into question the legitimacy of states in the region. Displaced populations continue to suffer due to the major conflicts in Syria, Iraq and elsewhere causing fragmentation and disintegration of communities. Contributors to this volume analyze how and why this crisis differs significantly from previous migration refugee flows in the region explain the historical and political antecedents of this crisis which have played a part in its shaping and explore the relationship between human security and the protection of vulnerable individuals and groups

Migration from the Middle East and North Africa to Europe Heinz Fassmann, Michael Bommes, Wiebke Sievers, 2025-10-01 One of the most important challenges concerning the future of the European Union is the demographic reproduction of the European population. Decreasing birth rates and the retirement of the baby boomers will dramatically reduce the labour force in the EU which will entail not only a lack of manpower but also lower contributions to European social systems It seems clear that the EU will have to counterbalance this population decrease by immigration in the coming years Migration Between the Middle East North Africa and Europe takes this challenge as a point of departure for analysing the MENA region in particular Morocco Egypt and Turkey as a possible source of future migration to the European Union At the same time it illustrates the uncertainties implied in such calculations especially at a time of radical political changes such as those brought about by the Arab Uprising A wide and scientific overview on migration potential from the NEMA region to the EU

Migration and Migrant Identities in the Near East from Antiquity to the Middle Ages Justin Yoo,Andrea

Zerbini,Caroline Barron,2018-10-29 This book brings together recent developments in modern migration theory a wide range of sources new and old tools revisited from GIS to epigraphic studies from stable isotope analysis to the study of literary sources and case studies from the ancient eastern Mediterranean that illustrate how new theories and techniques are helping to give a better understanding of migratory flows and diaspora communities in the ancient Near East A geographical gap has emerged in studies of historical migration as recent works have focused on migration and mobility in the western part of the Roman Empire and thus fail to bring a significant contribution to the study of diaspora communities in the eastern Mediterranean Bridging this gap represents a major scholarly desideratum and by drawing upon the experiences of previously neglected migrant and diaspora communities in the eastern Mediterranean from the Hellenistic period to the early mediaeval world this collection of essays approaches migration studies with new perspectives and methodologies shedding light not only on the study of migrants in the ancient world but also on broader issues concerning the rationale for mobility and the creation and features of diaspora identities

Migration and Health Sandro Galea,Catherine K.

Ettman,Muhammad H. Zaman,2022-11-25 A new introduction to a timeless dynamic how the movement of humans affects health everywhere International migrants compose more than three percent of the world s population and internal migrants those migrating within countries are more than triple that number Population migration has long been and remains today one of the central demographic shifts shaping the world around us The world s history and its health is shaped and colored by stories of migration patterns the policies and political events that drive these movements and narratives of individual migrants Migration and Health offers the most expansive framework to date for understanding and reckoning with human migration s implications for public health and its determinants It interrogates this complex relationship by considering not only the welfare of migrants but also that of the source destination and ensuing generation populations The result is an elevated interdisciplinary resource for understanding what is known and the considerable territory of what is not known at an intersection that promises to grow in importance and influence as the century unfolds

Migration from North Africa and the Middle East Alessandra Venturini,Philippe Fargues,2015-06-22 The countries of the Southern and Eastern

Mediterranean SEM and those in Sub Saharan Africa SSA are crucial to the development of the world economy Highly skilled migration to and from these regions is key to the recent socio political transformations that have occurred across the world

Despite this in the states concerned skilled migration remains an underlying issue of concern rather than at the top of political agendas leading to a spectrum of unclear and uncoordinated legal and policy frameworks Containing a series of thematic and country specific overviews this book highlights the specificity of each region and identifies and analyses key demographic economic legal and political data allowing for policy prescription Skilled Migration the brain drain and its impact is an extensively debated phenomenon and this will be an essential companion for social scientists policy makers and development scholars The Migration Question Leila Simona Talani, Matilde Rosina, 2025-07-01 A definitive study of a hotly debated phenomenon migration into Europe and America its socioeconomic impacts and the eternal policy efforts to stop the inevitable Borderlands Raffaella A. Del Sarto, 2021 The book proposes a profound rethink of the complex relationship between Europe defined here as the European Union and its members and the states of the Mediterranean Middle East and North Africa MENA Europe's southern neighbours These relations are examined through a borderlands prism that conceives of this interaction as one between an empire of sorts that seeks to export its order beyond the border and the empire's southern borderlands Focusing on trade relations on the one hand and the cooperation on migration borders and security on the other the book revisits the historical origins and modalities of Europe's selective rule transfer to MENA states the interests underwriting these policies and the complex dynamics marking the interaction between the two sides over a twenty year period 1995-2015 It shows that within a system of structurally asymmetric economic relations from which Europe and MENA elites benefit the most single MENA governments have been co-opted into the management of border and migration control where they act as Europe's gatekeepers Combined with specific policy choices of MENA governments Europe's selective expansion of its rules practices and disaggregated borders have contributed to rising socio-economic inequalities and the strengthening of authoritarian rule in the southern neighbourhood with Europe tacitly tolerating serious violations of the rights of refugees and migrants at its fringes Challenging the self-proclaimed benevolent nature of European policies and the notion of Fortress Europe alike the findings of this study contribute to broader debates on power dependence and interdependence in the discipline of international relations ZEI discussion paper, 1998

Forced Displacement and Migration Hans-Joachim Preuß, Christoph Beier, Dirk Messner, 2021-10-15 This book presents effective long term solutions for displacement and migration against the background of the current debates It offers insights on practical suggestions for dealing with displacement and migration due to violence examines ideas for the management of global migration movements and looks into the integration of refugees and migrants Throughout the chapters experts from science politics and practice shed light on the causes of global migration and the consequences of migration on a political economic and social level The focus of the discussion is not the avoidance of migratory movements but above all the use of positive effects in countries of origin transit and destination The book is a must read for researchers policy makers and politicians interested in international cooperation and in a better understanding of causes consequences and solutions of displacement and forced migration     Climate Change in the Middle East and North Africa William R. Thompson,Leila Zakhirova,2021-07-04 Environmental factors in the Middle East and North Africa MENA have played a crucial role in the historical and social development of the region The book delves into a broad set of historical literature from the past 15 000 years that neglected to consider environmental factors to their full effect Beyond the broad historic analysis the chapters derive conclusions for today s debate on whether climate change leads to more social conflict and violence Introducing a theoretical framework focused on adaptive cycling this book probes and refines the role of climate in ancient and modern political economic systems in the MENA region It also underscores just how bad the 21st century environment may become thanks to global warming While the MENA region may not survive the latest onslaught of deteriorating climate there is also some interest in how a region that once led the world in introducing all sorts of innovations thousands of years ago has evolved into a contemporary setting characterized by traditional conservatism poverty and incessant strife Emphasizing regional dynamics the book s central question deals with the role of climate change in the rise and decline of the MENA region The book will be a key resource to students and readers interested in global warming including academics and policymakers     Handbook of the Birds of Cyprus and Migrants of the Middle East David Armitage Bannerman,W. Mary Bannerman,1971

Resisting Europe Raffaella A. Del Sarto,Simone Tholens,2020-10-13 Resisting Europe conceptualizes the foreign policies of Europe defined as the European Union and its member states toward the states in its immediate southern neighborhood as semi imperial attempts to turn these states into Europe s southern buffer zone or borderlands In these hybrid spaces different types of rules and practices coexist and overlap and negotiations over meaning and implementation take place This book examines the diverse modalities by which states in the Mediterranean Middle East and North Africa MENA reject resist challenge modify or entirely change European policies and preferences and provides rich empirical evidence of these contestation practices in the fields of migration and border control banking and finance democracy promotion and telecommunications It addresses the complex question of when and how MENA states capitalize on their leverage and interdependence in their relationships with Europe and contributes to a more comprehensive understanding of Europe Middle East relations while engaging with broader debates on power and interdependence order and contestation in international relations While a contribution on the practices of resistance and contestation of MENA states vis vis European policies and preferences in this geopolitically significant region was overdue this volume leads the way for subsequent studies that seek to overcome the constraints of exceptionalism so characteristic of research of the Middle East Europe the European Union and certainly of their relationship     Psychosocial Experiences of African Migrants in Six European Countries Erhabor Idemudia,Klaus Boehnke,2020-07-28 This open access book provides an empirical account of the psychological and social experiences of 3500 African migrants to 6 European countries Germany Spain Italy The Netherlands France and the UK It discusses the psychosocial motivations for migration from Africa who migrates where and stressful pre and post migration factors affecting the social and psychological wellbeing of migrants The book also includes a detailed exploration of posttraumatic stress disorder PTSD and posttraumatic stress symptoms PTSS among African migrants Addressing and offering solutions to pre and post migration problems in Africa and Europe as well as the problems associated with the perilous journeys involved this unique study is a must read for anyone interested in cross cultural psychology and social science and particularly in migration and mental health     Migration World Magazine
