The papers are organized in the following topical sections: blockchain and crowdsourcing, machine learning, deep learning, recommender systems, data mining, web based applications, entity linkage and disambiguation, graph learning, knowledge graphs, graph mining and text mining. Communication Technology Update and Fundamentals August E. Grant, J. Rion McKissick, Professor of Journalism August E. Grant, Jennifer H. Meadows, 2013-09-05. New communication technologies are being introduced at an astonishing rate. Making sense of these technologies is increasingly difficult. Communication Technology Update and Fundamentals is the single best source for the latest developments, trends and issues in communication technology. Featuring the fundamental framework along with the history and background of communication technologies, Communication Technology Update and Fundamentals 12th edition helps you stay ahead of these ever-changing and emerging technologies. As always, every chapter has been completely updated to reflect the latest developments and market statistics and now covers digital signage, cinema technologies, social networking and telepresence in addition to the dozens of technologies explored in the previous edition. The book also features industry structure and regulation, history and theory along with full coverage of the latest technologies. The book's companion website <http://commtechupdate.com> offers updated information submitted by chapter authors and offers links to other Internet resources.

A Handbook of Media and Communication Research Klaus Bruhn Jensen, 2020-12-29. Thoroughly revised and updated, this third edition integrates perspectives from the social sciences and the humanities, focusing on methodology as a strategic level of analysis that joins practical applications with theoretical issues. The Handbook comprises three main elements: historical accounts of the development of key concepts and research traditions; systematic reviews of media organizations, discourses and users as well as of the wider social and cultural contexts of communication; and practical guidelines with sample studies taking readers through the different stages of a research process and reflecting on the social uses and consequences of research. Updates to this edition include: An overview of the interrelations between networked mass and interpersonal communication. A new chapter on digital methods. Three chapters illustrating different varieties of media and communication research including industry/academic collaboration and participatory action research.
