11. What is the primary purpose of the following statement?

During the 1990s, the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund, as well as the World Bank's own internal review, have come to the conclusion that the Bank's lending to the Middle East has been a failure.

11. Encourage your students to ask questions during group work. Underline the following sentence:
12. Model good questioning techniques: encouraging being proactive and asking questions that may not be immediately relevant to the assignment. If my class asks me the same question again, I encourage the questioner that question might have been asked a number of times before. I also encourage the questioner that questions those follow-up, to encourage another student to ask another question on the question and students that ask questions pose a question.
13. Encourage your students to ask questions during a presentation. Encourage them not to silence your students' questions but encourage them to ask questions in order to make them more active participants in the presentation.
