Mijn Jaren Als Bevelhebber:

Mijn jaren als bevelhebber Hans A. Couzy, 1996 From Indifference to Entrapment Norbert Both, 2000-01-01 A detailed analysis of the response to the Yugoslav crisis by one of America's key allies in NATO. The author focuses on the question of how a Western bureaucracy faced up to the most complex foreign policy challenge of the 1990s. The Netherlands as a pocket-sized medium power is an interesting case study. While the margins for Dutch foreign policy are limited, fate had it that the Netherlands occupied the European presidency during the second half of 1991 when the recognition issue divided the West and the parameters for the subsequent international intervention in the Balkans were set. By July 1995 the involvement of the Netherlands had deepened to the extent that Dutch troops who found themselves trapped in the UN safe area of Srebrenica together with the local Muslim population were unable to prevent the worst massacre in Europe since the Second World War. This study is based on interviews with all the major players including two former Defence Ministers and two former Ministers of Foreign Affairs and on documents from the Netherlands Ministry of Foreign Affairs made available under the country's own freedom of information act.

Boven het maaiveld Glenn van der Burg, 2012-04-25 Na elf jaar ondernemerschap zit Glenn van der Burg ontredderd op de bank. Weg energie, weg dynamiek, weg hoop. Dat laatste is nog wel het ergste. Het geloof dat het allemaal goed komt is verdwenen. Wat nu? Glenn neemt een drastische beslissing: hij stopt met ondernemen en gaat op zoek naar zijn nieuwe toekomst. In Boven het maaiveld gaat Glenn op zoek naar de essentie van leiderschap in de 21e eeuw. Waarom zijn er maar enkele mensen die het voortouw nemen en daadwerkelijk iets veranderen en verbeteren? Waarom leiden leiders? Waarom steken slechts een paar hun kop boven het maaiveld? En wat kan dit allemaal voor jou als lezer betekenen? Zijn zoektocht leidt langs modellen en theorieën van onder anderen Belbin en Quinn over leiderschap. Ook ontmoet hij leiders vanuit de praktijk zoals Alexander Rinnooy Kan, Alexander Pechtold en Willemijn Verloop.

MANAGING CRISES Uriel Rosenthal, Arjen Boin, Louise K. Comfort, 2001-01-01 In this book the editors with 25 notable contributors expand the knowledge of crisis management focusing on case studies of high profile events that have occurred in recent history. Part One of the text aims at theoretical development through empirical case studies and also postulates a crisis typology and charts specific theoretical and administrative challenges. The case bank which comprises the bulk of the book is presented in four additional sections. The first deals with the development of crises and compares the infamous Watts riots with the 1992 L.A. riots. It also analyzes the fragmented and complex international environment that allowed the safe area in Bosnia to be overrun by Bosnian Serbs in 1995. The final chapter chronicles the incredible human costs of mismanaged crisis in the Rwanda massacres in 1994. The second section explores the many decisional dilemmas that confront crisis managers. Cases include the fire at the Piper Alpha oil rig, the 1999 Turkish earthquakes, the Eindhoven/Holland plane crash and crisis management of the Mad Cow epidemic disease in the U.K. The third section explores the long-term dimensions of crises and crisis management and particularly the development of national traumas such as the assassination of Sweden's Prime Minister Olaf Palme in 1986 the 1992 Amsterdam air crash and the TWA flight 800 disaster in 1996 The final section shifts focus to future scenarios such as speculative information technology disasters potentially devastating viral epidemics deteriorating environmental and societal conditions in Russia the southwest U S coming water shortage and the outlook for Japan one of the world's most disaster prone countries Summarizing the research findings of the past decade the authors describe patterns in the paths toward crises the dilemmas and coping mechanisms that emerge during the thick of crisis and very importantly the pathways that lead away from crisis

Investigating Srebrenica Isabelle Delpla, Xavier Bougarel, Jean-Louis Fournel, 2012-06-25 In July 1995 the Bosnian Serb Army commanded by General Ratko Mladic attacked the enclave of Srebrenica a UN safe area since 1993 and massacred about 8 000 Bosniac men While the responsibility for the massacre itself lays clearly with the Serb political and military leadership the question of the responsibility of various international organizations and national authorities for the fall of the enclave is still passionately discussed and has given rise to various rumors and conspiracy theories Follow up investigations by the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia and by several commissions have dissipated most of these rumors and contributed to a better knowledge of the Srebrenica events and the part played by the main local and international actors This volume represents the first systematic comparative analysis of those investigations It brings together analyses from both the external standpoint of academics and the inside perspective of various professionals who participated directly in the inquiries including police officers members of parliament high ranking civil servants and other experts Evaluating how institutions establish facts and ascribe responsibilities this volume presents a historiographical and epistemological reflection on the very possibility of writing a history of the present time

Dutch National Security Policy and Defense Restructuring Since the Cold War Richard B.
