De Bourrienne, 2017-12-13 Excerpt from Memoirs of Napoleon Bonaparte Vol 1 What M De Las Casas states Napoleon to have said in May 1816 on the manner of writing his history corroborates the opi nion I have expressed It proves that all the facts and observa tions he communicated or dictated were meant to serve as mate rials We learn from the Memorial that M

De Las Casas wrote daily and that the manuscript was read over by Napoleon who Often made corrections with his own hand The idea Of a journal pleased him greatly He fancied it would be a work of which the world could afford no other example But there are passages in which the order of events is deranged in others facts are misrepresented and erroneous assertions are made I apprehend not altogether involuntarily About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
