Metallic Smelling Poop:

Visions of You C.Y. Bourgeois, 2011-12-15 Shelby Leight is a wise cracking lighthearted teenager looking forward to a fun filled senior year in high school. She already knows the pain of losing a loved one but has worked her way through the grief to come out on the other side. Then in the fall of 1975 in the sleepy picturesque town of Palmer, Alaska the unthinkable happens. There's a serial killer on the hunt and one of Shelbys best friends has disappeared. The sudden loss of her friend in such a violent manner awakens something in her an ability to communicate with the dead visions. Along with this Shelby falls in love for the first time only to discover the shocking truth about her boyfriend. Can she accept him for who what he is? Can her friends and family accept him? Shelby has a vision of the killer stalking another of her friends and is desperate to stop him before its too late. Instead of an enjoyable senior year of high school Shelby and her friends must come to grips with life and death and all they hold in their quest to find a monster before he kills again.

It begins in 1876 with our male protagonist fighting the demons of his war years with the Union Army. Today we would call it post traumatic stress disorder PTSD. His position in the Union Army was sharpshooter. There were many many killings. The haunts visit Roy at least once a month. We meet our female protagonist early in the story Abigail and Roy begin their relationship early on as a working partnership. The story continues through four generations. The clan reaches twenty four ages infant to Roy's late sixties. The last part of the story is about Sammy and his work shooting photos and writing script for an Eastern magazine. His assignments are the National Parks and National Monuments of the West. Pretty much ends with Sammy and his wife Deloris and son Roy Jr returning to the ranch. Completing another circle is this continuing story of Be without End. It is fall of 1929 and stock market crash hits the USA. But our clan is self sufficient and weathers the lean years without much of a ripple in their lifestyle providing their own produce from the huge garden beef and pork from their own herd eggs cream and cheese and honey from the hives. A testament to extended family and sustainability hard work and a creed handed down by Abigail and Roy.

Three months after Halia moves from Hawaii to Thailand in the 1980s at the age of nine she gets caught in the largest flood and landslide Thailand has ever seen. Logging was then banned because deforestation was to blame for the landslides. This changes the fate of the Thai logging elephants that are in captivity and as Halia helps with the conservation effort she finds that the life changing influence the elephants have on her will prepare her for the challenging trials she will experience in adulthood. Her story encompasses military takeover sex trafficking and civil unrest. She will also find out that real love may require sacrificing everything that she holds dear even the one person she would do anything for. Based on the author's life story.
