Nancy Spero Nancy Spero, Manuel J. Borja-Villel, Mignon Nixon, 2008 Nancy Spero born in Cleveland Ohio 1926 is a pioneer of feminist art and a key figure in the New York protest scene of the 1960s and 70s as highly regarded as famed artists Martha Rosler and Adrian Piper With a career spanning over 50 years Spero continues even today to engage, question and defy our current political, social and cultural scene her work has recently been exhibited throughout the US and Europe including the last edition of the Venice Biennial This book focuses on the artist's search to create her own language featuring the best of her work from early student works on paper to her latest presentation at the Venice Biennial No More Masterpieces Lucy Bradnock, 2021-01-01 This groundbreaking account of postwar American art traces the profound influence of Antonin Artaud Proposing an original reassessment of art from the 1950s to the 1970s No More Masterpieces reveals how artistic practice in postwar America was profoundly shaped by the work of the rebellious French poet and dramatist Antonin Artaud 1896-1948 A generation of artists mobilized Artaud's countercultural ideas to imagine new forms of representation and to redefine the relationship between artist and audience The book shows how Artaud's radical writings inspired the experimental theatrical work of John Cage, Rachel Rosenthal and Allan Kaprow the attack on artistic and social conventions launched by assemblage artists Wallace Berman and Bruce Conner and the feminist work of Carolee Schneemann and Nancy Spero Lucy Bradnock traces the dissemination of Artaud's writings in America and demonstrates how his interest in political and cultural disorder, the dangers of authority and the unreliability of representation found fertile ground in the context of the Cold War disillusionment with the ideals of Abstract Expressionism and the early years of identity politics Nancy Spero Elaine A. King, Nancy Spero, 1985 Pain and Politics in Postwar Feminist Art Rachel Warriner, 2023-02-23 Between 1966 and 1976 American artist Nancy Spero completed some of her most aggressively political work Made at a time when Spero was a key member of the anti-war and feminist arts activism that burgeoned in the New York art world during the period her works demonstrate a violent and bodily rejection of injustice Considering the ways in which anti-war and feminist art used emotion as a means to persuade and protest Pain and Politics in Postwar Feminist Art examines the history of this crucial decade in American art politics through close attention to Spero's practice Situating her work amongst the activism that defined the era this book examines the ways in which sensation and emotion became political weapons for a generation of artists seeking to oppose patriarchy and war Exemplary of the way in which artists were using metaphors of sensation and emotion in their work as part of the anti Vietnam war and feminist art movements in the late 1960s and early 1970s Spero's practice acts as a model for representing how politics feels By exploring Spero's political engagement anew this book offers a profound recontextualization of the important contribution that Spero made to Feminist thought politics and art in the US
