Dynamite Writing Ideas and Oonawassee Summer "Can We Use a Story Map?" Le Tran,2009 Research Question How will using a story map graphic organizer help improve students structure and organization in their narrative writing Sub Questions Will using a story map help ELL students to be able to plan their writing and organize their writing during the pre write phase Will using a story map help students to allow their readers to imagine the world of the event or experience in their narrative writing Research Activities Context This study took place in a fourth grade self contained classroom that was located in a small district under Program Improvement The class was composed of a diverse student population with a wide range of academic needs In this intervention there were four students who were chosen as target students based on their low writing ability All four students were English Language Learners Methods and Data This intervention spanned 5 weeks It was implemented in order to guide students in improving the organization and structure of their narrative writing Student achievement was defined based on their increasing scores and the layout of their papers whether or not the paragraphs were identifiable The data included a collection of their graphic organizers narrative writing attitudinal surveys observational notes and homework Results Comparisons of baseline and outcome data indicate that target students showed slight growth on their writing scores based on a rubric in the organization of the writing and in their attitude towards writing Conclusions Story map graphic organizers provided students with a visual display of how to write a narrative It also provided students with guidance to start and continue through the different sections of a narrative This intervention demonstrated that with modeling practice and many examples students will be able to improve in the organization and structure of their writing and feel more confident as they write Grade Level Fourth Grade Data Collection Methods Curriculum assessments Survey Attitude Writing Assessments and Observation Student Curriculum Areas ESL ELL Writing Instructional Approaches Writing Explicit Instruction Writing Narrative Homework and Graphic organizers Being and Becoming Teachers of Writing

Andrew P. Johnson,2024-04-16 This engaging inviting textbook from a renowned expert in writing education provides all the knowledge pedagogical strategies and tools needed to enable any teacher to be an effective teacher of writing Using the five step writing process as a foundation the text describes how to teach the necessary skills related to grammar spelling punctuation and other writing mechanics and addresses all major genres and stages of writing Written in an authentic voice that exemplifies good writing Johnson presents a variety of pragmatic research based strategies that support students writing development and encourage teachers to apply their own creativity and intelligence in the classroom This is an essential text for courses in writing instruction literacy methods and teaching English Language Arts ELA The Effects of Graphic Organizers on Third Grade Students' Narrative Writing Sharine Nguyen,2009 Research question In what ways do graphic organizers along with teacher guided questions affect third grade English Language Learner s performance on Narrative Writing prompts Subquestions How will this improve ELL s organization and focus on narrative prompts How will this affect student s use of sensory details How will this affect student s confidence about themselves as writers How will this affect student s attitudes toward writing Research Activities Context This inquiry took place in a third grade classroom at Lincoln Elementary School The school implemented Response to Intervention RTI which required students to be grouped based on their reading abilities and sent to their leveled classroom to be taught reading and language arts Three out of the four target students were English Language Learner s ELL s as indicated on the California English Language Development Test CELDT The remaining student was classified as Initial Fluent English Proficient IFEP The target students were chosen based on their low performance on a district mandated narrative writing assessment Methods and data The Narrative writing intervention occurred over a period of eight weeks including a two week winter break The main goals were to increase student's organization use of adjectives and use of story connectors. Other components studied included effects on confidence and interest in writing. Students practiced using the Quick Sketch graphic organizer as a pre writing tool to organize their narrative writing with a beginning, middle and end. They also practiced using the Adjective Organizer as a revising tool to include more adjectives in their writing. Students used the writing process: pre writing, drafting, revising, editing and publishing for each writing task. Data sets include six narrative writing pieces including a pre assessment and two post assessments. Results Comparisons of baseline and outcome data indicate one student made significant gains in both her organization and use of adjectives; one student made moderate gains and two students showed slight improvements throughout the intervention but did not show improvement on their post assessments. Conclusions Comparisons of baseline and outcome data indicate using graphic organizers that included guided questions along with illustrations helped students to organize their ideas and write a more organized paper. It also helped improve the use of story connectors and adjectives. Generally, students' interest in writing went down slightly but they showed increased confidence in their writing ability. Grade level: Third Grade. Data collection methods: Writing Assessments, Interviews, Survey, Attitude and Observation, Field Notes. Curriculum areas: ESL, ELL, Writing, Instructional approaches: Writing, Narrative Writing, Explicit instruction, Student Engagement, Graphic organizers, concept maps, Note taking.

Expanding Reading Comprehension in Grades 3-6

Katherine A. Dougherty, Stahl, Georgia, Earnest García, 2022-03-25. Students in grades 3-6 need to use increasingly sophisticated comprehension skills and strategies as they read and build knowledge across disciplinary content areas. Grounded in research, this book presents effective practices for integrating literacy instruction with literature, science and social studies. Chapters address text selection, vocabulary development, strategy instruction, discussion formats, writing to express and expand comprehension, assessment and more. Ways to meet the needs of emergent bilingual and culturally diverse students are highlighted throughout. Ideal for preservice and inservice teachers and professional staff development, the book includes classroom vignettes, text boxes with easy-to-read instructional procedures and curriculum resources. Helpful reproducible forms can be downloaded and printed in a convenient 8 1/2 x 11 size.
