Methods For Matthew Methods In Biblical Interpretation:

Methods for Matthew Mark Allan Powell, 2009-07-27 Methods for Matthew offers a primer on six exegetical approaches that have proved to be especially useful and popular. In each case a prominent scholar describes the principles and procedures of a particular approach and then demonstrates how that approach works in practice applying it to a well known text from Matthew's Gospel. The Restoration of Messianic Hope Brian Main, 2025-06-25 The New Testament portrays the apostles as placing great emphasis on Jesus' resurrection in their preaching and teaching. This emphasis is often lacking however in contemporary preaching and teaching. If Jesus' resurrection is to regain the centrality it held in the apostolic age its significance must be understood. In this study Brian Main attempts to understand the significance of Jesus' resurrection in the Gospel of Matthew. Since Jesus' resurrection is the proper conclusion of the story in Matthew it is necessary to understand what the story is that it concludes. By analyzing the characters, settings, plot and point of view in Matthew 1:1-4:11 as well as those in the resurrection narrative 28:1-20 Main and his readers come to grasp the expectations that Matthew's audience develops as that story unfolds. As readers understand those expectations they will gain a better appreciation of what was at stake when Jesus experienced opposition and therefore of what was restored and guaranteed by his resurrection.

Dictionary of Biblical Interpretation: K-Z John Haralson Hayes, 1999. The Language and Literature of the New Testament Lois Fuller Dow, Craig A. Evans, Andrew W. Pitts, 2016-11-28. In The Language and Literature of the New Testament a team of international scholars assembles to honour the academic career of New Testament scholar Stanley E. Porter. Over the years Porter has distinguished himself in a wide range of sub-disciplines within New Testament Studies. The contents of this book represent these diverse scholarly interests ranging from canon and textual criticism to linguistics, other interpretive methodologies, Jesus and the Gospels and Pauline studies. Studies in Matthew's Gospel W.J.C. Weren, 2014-08-28. These Studies in Matthew's Gospel by Wim J. C. Weren are the result of scholarly work carried out using recent methods in Biblical exegesis such as structural analysis, text semantics and intertextuality. Part One presents a new proposal regarding the macrostructure of Matthew's Gospel and discusses meanings of textual units from this Gospel on the basis of synchronic research. In Part Two intertextual theories are described and practical tools are developed that enable us to identify various types of relations between texts from Matthew's Gospel and co-generic or co-thematic textual units from the Hebrew Bible, the Septuagint and early Jewish and early Christian writings. Part Three answers the question to what extent the ways in which the disciples are portrayed in Matthew is related to real groups in the Matthean communities. The three successive steps are deliberately chosen and are in a complementary relationship to each other. An Illustrated Commentary on the Gospel According to Matthew Lyman Abbott, 1875. Introduction to Biblical Interpretation William W. Klein, Craig L. Blomberg, Robert L.
