prevent acts of terrorism Spain's struggle with ETA and the British Government licks its wounds after a resounding defeat of its latest anti terrorist proposals by the House of Lords one cannot but wonder whether post 9 11 the Europeans are not even more concerned with terrorism than their US counterparts A look at media reports legislative and judicial activities in either Britain or Germany clearly underlines that those two countries are deeply embroiled in anti terrorist activity Can it be that Europe is embroiled in the War on Terror constantly providing for new arms in this conflict Or is it a refusal to participate in the War on Terror that fuels a constant need for Parliaments to grapple with the subject begrudgingly conceding one increasingly draconian measure after the other The question as to where Europe stands in the War on Terror is a fascinating one but one which is difficult to answer
