Moonlight Serenade Score:

Improvising the Score Gretchen L. Carlson, 2022-06-27 2023 Jazz Journalists Association JJA Jazz Awards for Books of the Year Honorable Mention Recipient On December 4 1957 Miles Davis revolutionized film soundtrack production improvising the score for Louis Malle's Ascenseur pour l'échafaud A cinematic harbinger of the French New Wave Ascenseur challenged mainstream filmmaking conventions emphasizing experimentation and creative collaboration It was in this environment during the late 1950s to 1960s a brief golden age for jazz in film that many independent filmmakers valued improvisational techniques featuring soundtracks from such seminal figures as John Lewis Thelonious Monk and Duke Ellington But what of jazz in film today Improvising the Score: Rethinking Modern Film Music through Jazz provides an original vivid investigation of innovative collaborations between renowned contemporary jazz artists and prominent independent filmmakers The book explores how these integrative jazz film productions challenge us to rethink the possibilities of cinematic music production In depth case studies include collaborations between Terence Blanchard and Spike Lee Malcolm X When the Levees Broke Dick Hyman and Woody Allen Hannah and Her Sisters Antonio Sánchez and Alejandro González Iñárritu Birdman and Mark Isham and Alan Rudolph Afterglow The first book of its kind this study examines jazz artists work in film from a sociological perspective offering rich behind the scenes analyses of their unique collaborative relationships with filmmakers It investigates how jazz artists negotiate their own creative labor examining the tensions between improvisation and the conventionally highly regulated structures hierarchies and expectations of filmmaking Grounded in personal interviews and detailed film production analysis Improvising the Score illustrates the dynamic possibilities of integrative artistic collaborations between jazz film and other contemporary media exemplifying its ripeness for shaping and invigorating twenty first century arts media and culture
