This book selects Chinese excellent enterprise management cases integrating into the education system of business schools sharing China's new story to readers and boosting the process of national economic construction and enterprise transformation Chinese enterprises face unprecedented opportunities and challenges under the circumstance of fast changing technology economy and political environment In the face of various uncertainties they have risen to prominence and constantly summed up enterprise management concepts and practical experience suitable for their own development to reshape their competitive advantages and enhance their market value Based on the investigation this book covers the major theoretical aspects of management principles such as planning organizing leading controlling and innovation The 17 selected cases from manufacturing retailing technology big data service agriculture and other industries cover strategic management entrepreneurial management human oriented management information management and organizational innovation management We hope that readers can get some valuable practical experience and enlightenment from the practices in these fields The book also includes two case study guides which guide readers to form a case study's thinking It also encourages readers to broaden their learning ideas on management Cultural Funding and Financing Carolina Dalla Chiesa,Anders Rykkja,2026-01-03

This edited open access volume offers a comprehensive analysis of new and traditional funding models for the arts and culture In the economic and political contexts of reduced art funding the book takes an objective pragmatic and heterodox approach to demonstrate how financial sustainability in the arts can be achieved via a range of top down and bottom up mechanisms which are valued either in terms of institutional or crowd based legitimacy The book aims to offer both a scholarly interpretation of established and emerging funding and financing practices within the cultural and creative sector as well as guidance for artists creators and cultural programmers through various case studies and multiple examples of current practices Contributions are divided into three sections Section one outlines the most important traditional tools and models while the second part covers the key contemporary practices premised on the use of digital platforms and the final part introduces several case studies The objective of this volume is to demonstrate that while traditional models show no signs of being supplanted digitalisation has facilitated the emergence of new forms Such an evolution has consequences for creators of works as well as those willing to support them The contributions address these issues by investigating and analysing the individual or combined adoption of traditional and new funding and financing models in a post digital context

Exploring the Role of Social Media in Health Promotion Michael Stellefson,J. Don Chaney,Beth H.

Chaney,Samantha R. Paige,2020-06-18 The use of social media in public health education promotion has been increasing due in part to its ability to remove physical access and geographical barriers for users Specifically social media provides an outlet to increase and promote translational health communication strategies and the effective dissemination of health information and data in ways that allow users to not only utilize but also to create and share pertinent health information Although social media applications in public health and health promotion have yielded success in terms of generating support structures and networks for effective health behavior change there are challenges and complications associated with use of social media that also need to be addressed e g managing misinformation ensuring compliance with privacy protection regulations This Special Issue aims to explore social media as a translational health promotion tool by bridging principles of health education and health communication Broadly this Special Issue is seeking original submissions that examine 1 the method with which social media users access negotiate and create health information that is both actionable and impactful for diverse audiences 2 strategies for overcoming challenges to using social media in health promotion and 3 best practices for designing implementing and or evaluating social media campaigns and forums in public health Special interest will be given to innovative submissions that expand and build upon traditional health education approaches with health communication theories and models Other manuscript types of interest include relevant position papers brief reports and commentaries
