Western Broadcast Models Leen Haenens, Frieda Saeys, 2007 CD ROM includes data about general developments in broadcasting specific examples and analysis techniques

Western Broadcasting at the Dawn of the 21st Century Leen d' Haenens, Frieda Saeys, 2021-06-21 Broadcasting is an important indicator of a society's political economical social cultural and geographical context While currently at a crossroads European broadcasting remains highly diverse due to the fragmentation of national policies The book introduces the reader to the topic by providing and explaining facts figures and techniques of analysis The contributions to the first section of Western Broadcasting examine the general theoretical framework The articles in the second section map out European media cases The book's twofold approach is reflected in the accompanying CD ROM which also contains examples and hyperlinks

Media Dynamics & Regulatory Concerns in the Digital Age Leen D'Haenens, Frieda Saeys, 1998

Media & Open Societies, 2000 Traditional national and medium specific regulatory models in communications policy in the East and West have become outdated New medium neutral and internationally oriented regulatory models are replacing them This book discusses how these new regulatory models can contribute to the emergence of an open society that is a society in which all have access to society's information and communication resources in a non discriminatory and affordable way Experts from the Faculty of Journalism of Moscow State University The Amsterdam School of Communications Research ASCoR of the University of Amsterdam and other experts from Finland the United Kingdom and Belgium address this question The papers in this volume discuss key issues in the development of communications policies for open societies These issues focus on the social responsibilities of media in a changing society the role of competition in stimulating media innovation and diversity and the potential of new media in strengthening user's autonomy and empowerment Expressing different historical contexts the editors approach the issues from very different perspectives but with the common objective of understanding the converging media dynamics in East and West The resulting mix contributes to the debate surrounding the communications policies that will stimulate the development of global openness in the 21st century
