Memes Today Ideas Promo:

Launch! Advertising and Promotion in Real Time Michael Solomon, 2009 Launch Advertising and Promotion is written for advertising and promotion courses taught to students in the business school and journalism mass communication students. This textbook is the first of its kind to teach advertising concepts by reverse engineering a real advertising campaign from beginning to end. In April 2007, SSK an innovative New York City communications agency launched the first ever branding campaign for msnbc.com with the tag A Fuller Spectrum of News. Launch follows that campaign from initial agency pitch through roll out of print and media assets to post campaign analysis. Throughout it exposes readers to the theory and concepts of advertising and promotion and the personalities and decisions that drove this campaign. The book takes a rare look behind the curtain even letting you see some of the paths not chosen by the agency and client. Students get a realistic sense of how theory plays out in practice and get a flavor for the exciting field of advertising and promotion. And they consistently learn the perspectives of both the advertising agency where many journalism and communications students will work and the client where many marketing majors will work. This is a unique book with a unique perspective by a unique author team and you won't find this kind of insight in any other text on the market. We think you're going to love it. This textbook has been used in classes at Ball State University, Emerson College, Florida Institute of Technology, Grand Valley State University, Johnson County Community College, Manchester Business School, McLennan Community College, Michigan State University, North Hennepin Community College, Pierce College, Rochester Institute of Technology, Saint Louis University, Salem State College, South Dakota State University, Texas State University, Texas Tech University, University of New Hampshire, University of North Carolina, University of Notre Dame, University of South Florida, Virginia Tech, Western Kentucky University.

The Alcalde, 2012-05 As the magazine of the Texas Exes, The Alcalde has united alumni and friends of The University of Texas at Austin for nearly 100 years. The Alcalde serves as an intellectual crossroads where UT's luminaries, artists, engineers, executives, musicians, attorneys, journalists, lawmakers, and professors among them meet bimonthly to exchange ideas. Its pages also offer a place for Texas Exes to swap stories and share memories of Austin and their alma mater. The magazine's unique name is Spanish for mayor or chief magistrate, the nickname of the governor who signed UT into existence was The Old Alcalde.

A Transmedia Archaeology of Film Promotion Online Kim Walden, 2025-10-27 At a time when more films are released annually than there are days in the year, films must compete for audience attention. As a result, promotional budgets have risen exponentially with online becoming the fastest growing sector. Film websites don't just promote films; they chronicle backstories, map storyworlds, introduce characters, and provide spaces for audiences to congregate. Yet as a hybrid of promotion, storytelling, and community hub, these sites are ephemeral and, when the promotional work is done, they are often locked, taken down, and disappear without trace. This book considers this emerging form: Where have film websites been collected and archived? What forms do these websites take? And how do audiences engage with film websites Drawing on media archaeological methods as well as developing new strategies to investigate these intriguing media objects this book suggests that film websites are worthy of consideration as cultural artefacts in their own right In Beyond the Screen 2014 Sarah Atkinson describes film sites as new filmic objects and an unparalleled cultural form This book makes these new filmic objects its focus and sets out to discover more about them The Producers Guild of America's definition of transmedia practices extends to narrative commercial and marketing roll outs so one way these new filmic objects can be understood is as a kind of transmedia marketing However while there is no shortage of how to manuals on transmedia storytelling and transmedia marketing these practices remain under theorised in the literature So this is what this book sets out to do
