Delusive Speech in the Sharing Economy Julie Reid, 2025-03-04 In this examination of how the rise of online sharing economy platforms has facilitated online crime this book shows how while marketed as trustworthy peer to peer services these platforms are highly vulnerable to misuse by scammers and are used for the dissemination of delusive speech The analysis centres around the concept of delusive speech a sub set of disinformation designed to deceive and motivate by criminal intent Looking beyond the economic and disruptive impacts of sharing economy platforms like Uber Airbnb and others this book situates these Big Tech giants as mass communication channels that are frequently misused by bad actors to distribute dangerous content globally Drawing from over 600 cases of victims lured into scams or physical danger via misleading Airbnb listings the book provides a detailed case study exposing Airbnb s failure to establish legitimate safety measures despite branding its platform as a community of trust Incorporating netnography and thematic analysis the author theorises the deceptive semiotic structure of delusive speech and evaluates practical mechanisms Airbnb could employ to prevent scams and crime on its platform With a global audience including researchers in communication and media studies digital media and media industries as well as tech journalists Silicon Valley critics policymakers and digital rights advocates this book unmaskes how sharing economy giants like Airbnb contribute to an epidemic of online deception causing real world harm

The Innovation Complex Sharon Zukin, 2020-02-03 You hear a lot these days about innovation and entrepreneurship and about how good jobs in tech will save our cities Yet these common tropes hide a stunning reality local lives and fortunes are tied to global capital You see this clearly in metropolises such as San Francisco and New York that have emerged as superstar cities In these cities startups bloom jobs of the future multiply and a meritocracy trained in digital technology backed by investors who control deep pools of capital forms a new class the tech financial elite In The Innovation Complex the eminent urbanist Sharon Zukin shows the way these forces shape the new urban economy through a rich and illuminating account of the rise of the tech sector in New York City Drawing from original interviews with venture capitalists tech evangelists and economic development officials she shows how the ecosystem forms and reshapes the city from the ground up Zukin explores the people and plans that have literally rooted digital technology in the city That in turn has shaped a workforce molded a mindset and generated an archipelago of tech spaces which in combination have produced a now hegemonic innovation culture and geography She begins with the subculture of hackathons and meetups introduces startup founders and venture capitalists and explores the transformation of the Brooklyn waterfront from industrial wasteland to innovation coastline She shows how far beyond Silicon Valley cities like New York are shaped by an influential triple helix of business government and university leaders an alliance that joins C Wright Mills s power elite real estate developers and ambitious avatars of academic capitalism As a result cities around the world are caught between the demands of the tech economy and communities desires for growth a massive and often insurmountable challenge for those
