For fans of dark fantasy like Cemetery Boys, Noughts and Crosses and Threads that Bind from major new YA talent Jamaican British author Nevin Holness. The first time Eli had tried taking magic that wasn't his it had wrapped around his palms like razor wire tight enough that he'd needed stitches. Since then Eli had bled magic from a soul enough times that he knew the rhythm of it. He knew what kinds of magic to stay away from and which he could upsell which would get stuck beneath his fingernails and which would crumble and turn to ash if he held on too tightly. Eli doesn't know who he is or where he came from. What he does know is that he can pluck the magic from a soul like a petal from a flower. And he knows there is nothing he wouldn't borrow, steal or destroy in order to discover his past. Malcolm knows he can raise the dead with a wave of his hand but all he really wants is to be able to save his mother. When Eli is sent to track down the legendary fang of the leopard god Osebo he finds himself entangled with an old and ancient power. Forced to team up, Malcolm and Eli must weave through the cracks of London unearthing magic that should have stayed buried. Until finally they face a power greater than either of them could have imagined: the daughter of Death herself. Raising the dead is easy; living is harder.
