Willen, 2007-12-05 Transnational Migration to Israel in Global Comparative Context explores both how and why the recent influx of approximately 200 000 non-Jewish migrants from dozens of countries across the globe has led state officials to declare in definitive terms that Israel is not an immigration country despite its unwavering commitment to welcoming unlimited numbers of homeward-bound Jewish immigrants. As this innovative volume illustrates the arrival of these economically motivated migrants about half of whom are defined by the state as legal and half as illegal has dramatically transformed the local labor economy of Israel/Palestine. Moreover the presence of labor migrants along with smaller groups of asylum seekers and victims of trafficking in women has also generated a wide array of complicated legal policy related cultural and ideological questions and dilemmas for the Israeli state local municipalities and civil society. Taking both the Palestinian-Israeli conflict and Israel's newfound embeddedness in globalizing labor markets as backdrop this multidisciplinary collection investigates the causes as well as the consequences of these new waves of transnational migration to Israel both in comparison to other world regions and in terms of three interrelated levels of analysis first the micro level of migrants' everyday experience second the meso level of state and institutional policies and practices and finally the macro level of global political economic trends and processes. Bringing together a dynamic array of pioneering senior researchers along with more junior scholars the volume is distinctive not only in its incisive comparisons between Israel and other destination countries but also in its multifaceted analysis of how the Israeli migration regime has shaped, constrained and on occasion been challenged by the arrival of these largely unanticipated migrants. Among the themes analyzed are the relationship between transnational migration processes and the simmering Israeli American Public Policy in a Comparative Context Howard M. Population, Ethnicity, And Nation-building Calvin Goldscheider, 2019-07-11 This volume focuses on the linkages between ethnicity and population processes in the context of nation building. Using historical and contemporary illustrations in a variety of countries parts of this complex puzzle are scrutinized through the prisms of sociology, history, political science, anthropology and demography. Themes of ethnic group formation and transformation, persistence and assimilation, demographic transitions and convergences and the processes of political mobilization and economic development are described and compared. Case studies from Southeast Asia, China, Africa, Brazil, Israel, the former Soviet Union, Canada, Europe and the United States are presented by leading scholars. The examples illustrate the diversity of contexts that connect population, ethnicity and nation building, raising new questions and comparative problems. The importance of ethnic conflict for issues of inequality and group disadvantage in the emerging societies of Asia, Africa and the Middle East in the politics of race and immigration in western societies and in European and American history emerges from the research. The multidisciplinary emphasis addresses core themes of ethnicity and nation building in comparative perspectives.

Sprachenpolitik in Belarus. Nation-building in der Grand Strategy Lukashenka

Maximilian Hohenstedt, 2018-01-08 Bachelorarbeit aus dem Jahr 2016 im Fachbereich Politik Region Russland Note 1 6 Ludwig Maximilians Universität München GSI Veranstaltung Abschlussarbeit Sprache Deutsch Abstract In dieser Bachelorarbeit soll untersucht werden wie sich die Sprachenpolitik in Belarus seit 1995 unter Präsident Aljaksandr Lukashenka geändert hat und was die Ursachen für diese Veränderungen sind. Ziel wird es sein anhand der vorliegenden Daten zur Entwicklung und Perzeption der Sprachgewohnheiten in Belarus darzulegen inwieweit die Sprachenpolitik bestimmt ist für Aufstieg und Machterhalt Lukashenka und inwiefern er die Symbolkraft dieser Thematik für sich zu nutzen verstand und nutzen musste. Wie aus der Arbeit hervorgehen wird ist die Frage der Sprache sowohl im Spannungsfeld zu Russland als auch in Belarus selbst stets eine politische Frage und für jeden politischen Akteur von Bedeutung. Nation-building Unraveled? Antonio Donini, Norah Niland, Karin Wermester, 2004

Uses Afghanistan as a case study that can be applied internationally. Contributors have direct political and human rights experience in the field. The prevailing wisdom about post conflict reconstruction is centered on the notion of nation building. In the globalized post September 11th world can military might and technological solutions foster stability by enforcing democracy from the outside. Written by key practitioners and analysts involved in the Afghan crisis Nation Building Unraveled explains how emerging international ordering practices affect the role and policy of international actors such as United Nations agencies and international NGOs their interaction with national authorities and local communities and their ability to generate just and social outcomes.

Ethnicity and Nation Building in the Nordic World

Sven Tägil, 1995 In the context of the re-emergence of ethnic nationalisms in several parts of Europe few would think of the stable and apparently ethnically homogenous Nordic countries. They do however contain their own ethnic minorities. This book examines the historical experience of these minorities and their role in the emergence of nationalism in the Nordic world. It also looks at nationalism separate from minority issues in the cases of Iceland, Greenland and the Faroes. The book is the first to address this subject comprehensively and will be invaluable background reading for students of any of the Nordic countries.

Film and Identity in Kazakhstan

Rico Isaacs, 2018-02-07 Cinema and nationalism are two fundamentally modern phenomena but how have films shaped our understanding of the creation, the imagining of Central Asian nations? Here Rico Isaacs uses cinema as an analytical lens to explore how the Kazakh national identity has been constructed and contested. Drawing on an analysis of Kazakh films from the last century and featuring new interviews with directors and critics involved in the Central Asian film industry his book traces the construction of nationalism within Kazakh cinema from the country's inception as a Soviet Republic to a modern independent nation. Isaacs identifies four narratives since the collapse of the Soviet Union: a warrior like ethnic narrative rooted in the 18th Century struggles against the Mongolian Oirat tribes a civic inspired narrative cemented in the Stalinist deportations of the 1930s and 40s a religious narrative founded within the mystic and philosophical religion of Tengrism and the cult of the Sky God and a socio economic narrative which roots Kazakh nationhood and identity in contemporary social divisions the lived day to day experiences of ordinary citizens and the struggles they face with authority These last two tropes demonstrate how cinema has emerged as a site of dissent against the country s authoritarian regime under President Nazarbayev Film and Identity in Kazakhstan advances our understanding of Kazakhstan and nationalism by demonstrating the multiple and inessential character of each and illustrates the important role of cinema in contesting political power in the post Soviet space Modern Spain Pamela Beth Radcliff,2017-05-08 Modern Spain 1808 to the Present is a comprehensive overview of Spanish history from the Napoleonic era to the present day Places a large emphasis on Spain s place within broader European and global history The chronological political narrative is enriched by separate chapters on long term economic social and cultural developments This presentation of modern Spanish history incorporates the latest thinking on key issues of modernity social movements nationalism democratization and democracy Nation-Building and Identity in Europe Rodanthi Tzanelli,2008-10-24

Recent years have witnessed a resurgence of nationalist movements and conflicts both in Europe and beyond The persistence of national identity as a central feature of cultural and political life invites us to reflect anew upon the dynamics through which nationhood is constituted This book offers a provocative theorization of nation formation focusing on the key role played by dialogic relations of hegemony resistance and reciprocity in the emergence of the modern nation The workings of this dialogic relation between the emergent nation and its Others is explored through the encounter between Greece and Britain in the latter part of the nineteenth century one of the most notable instances of nation formation played out within the heart of a modern Europe that traced its origins in an imagined Hellenic civilization Book cover Ethnicity & Nation Building International Studies Association,1974-03 The Harriman Institute Forum ,1993-09 Nationalism and Regionalism in a Colonial Context David Henley,1996 This book describes and analyses Minahasan regional nationalism in the period up to 1942 Attention is given to precolonial antecedents to the transformations brought about by compulsory coffee cultivation Christian mission activity and Western education to the role of local representative councils to the privileged position which Minahasans came to occupy relative to other Indonesians within the colonial state and to the ambiguous relationship between Minahasa and the Indonesian nationalist movement Ideas and models drawn from the theoretical literature on nationalism are used throughout the study to illuminate the processes described The concluding chapter also includes brief comparisons with other Indonesian regions and with the Philippines together with an epilogue summarizing the developments of the Japanese occupation and the revolutionary period A Rattleskull Genius Geraint H.
