The two novellas in this collection both describe a world gone mad with a frenzied rush for profit and promotion a world in which bureaucracy seemingly trumps all other considerations The first novella So This Is It finds its protagonist unable to find work anywhere except in the ever expanding government bureaucracy Reluctantly he finds himself employed in the Office of the Word Assigned to do the impossible the protagonist struggles to find meaning in a world without a soul The Second novella A Fortnight of Frenzy describes how in the midst of suffering and death a few individuals manage to exploit pain for gain The main character and his spouse both work in a hospital and both do their jobs well However the protagonist wonders just what is the goal of his job Is it to enrich the administrators or to help the sick Men's Wear ,1965-02

Direct Response to the Commission on Race and Ethnic Disparities Report. David Gomadza,2021-04-08 The biggest Mystery But how come in the 21st century a government or authority or even institutions can be regarded as practising structural or institutional racism with all these rights groups and laws People are saying there is no racism while some are adamant that racism exists because the byproducts are exactly those that result from structural or institutional racist structures So is there something that exists that people can t pinpoint but what is causing all this This is the billion dollar question What are we missing Is there something else that is going on that is creating the same effects that people especially young generations born here are complaining about OK first what is similar to racism or what can yield the same effects as racism Decorative Furnisher
