Study Abroad Carmen Granda,2023-11-02 Study abroad is the ideal option for world language students to immerse themselves in the target language and culture However circumstances beyond control may make travel challenging even impossible Technology has the potential to engage students and provide an opportunity for linguistic and cultural immersion from home In addition to immersing students in the target language and culture Carmen Granda shows that technology can be implemented in all world language courses to foster connections and comparisons and most importantly create community in and outside of the classroom She demonstrates that digital tools have the power to make language learning inclusive of and accessible to all students fulfilling diversity equity and inclusion DEI goals of higher education

Producing Children Peter C. Kunze,Victoria Ford Smith,2025-04-15 Producing Children imagines the possibility indeed the inevitability of a creative relation between children as producers and consumers by revising the long established hierarchical relation between adults and children The chapters in this collection reveal that studying child produced culture complicates our received understandings of children s culture as culture by adults for children about children They also underscore children s literature as a cultural phenomenon that moves across and beyond genres forms and media As a whole this collection reveals that attention to child produced culture invites dialogue and collaboration across fields and disciplines invested in the critical understanding of children as embodied beings and childhood as both a stage of development and discursive construct with social political economic and cultural dimensions and influence With the ongoing vibrancy of childhood studies as a multidisciplinary area of inquiry studies of child produced culture provide scholars with an exciting opportunity to complicate enrich and expand theorization of childhood creativity children s culture and even children themselves

Hooked Emily McIntire, 2022-09-20 Once upon a time there was a little boy His belly full of laughter his life full of joy Until one day something changed stripped his innocence away The hole inside making space for the devil to come and play His dreams gone forever he grew up way too fast An endless night of crocodiles and watches made of glass He grew into a villain the taste of vengeance on his tongue Craving to make his enemies pay for the misdeeds they had done Instead he found a Darling girl and refused to let her go For what better way to make the man pay than to steal his little shadow
