

NABH Accreditation Procedure

Preparation of Quality Manual:

The blood storage centres shall prepare a Quality Manual as per the NABH standard. The Quality Manual shall state the Quality Policy and Objectives of the centre. The Quality Manual shall address to all the clauses of the standard. Cross-reference to the procedures, both of quality management system and technical, shall be given in the manual.

Application for accreditation:

The blood storage centres shall apply to NABH in the prescribed application form. The application shall be accompanied with the prescribed application fee as detailed in the application form. The application shall be submitted to NABH in two copies along with two copies of Quality Manual.

Scrutiny of application:

Application form is scrutinized at NABH Secretariat and if it is found to be complete in all respects, a unique reference number is issued to the centre. The organization shall be required to quote this reference number in all future correspondence with NABH.

Appointment of Assessor:

NABH shall appoint Assessor who shall have the overall responsibility of conducting the assessment for the blood storage centre. He/ She will evaluate the adequacy of quality manual of the blood storage centre, and will conduct the final assessment of the blood storage centre.

Nabh Quality Manual:

Health Tourism David A. Reisman, 2010-01-01 In this unique and pathbreaking book David Reisman examines the relatively new phenomenon of health travel. He presents a multidisciplinary account of the way in which lower costs, shorter waiting times, different services, and the chance to combine recreational tourism with a check up or an operation all come together to make medical travel a new industry with the potential to create jobs and wealth while at the same time giving sick people high quality care at an affordable price. The book illustrates that it is no longer the case that medical attention must be consumed at home. Patients are travelling to Mexico, India, and Thailand for a heart bypass. They are going to Hungary, Poland, and Malaysia for dentistry. Doctors are migrating to Britain, the USA, and Canada for new challenges. Hospitals are opening subsidiaries in Dubai, the Philippines, and Costa Rica to see overseas patients on the spot. Integrating academic perspectives from medicine, tourism, health economics, development studies, and public policy, the author concludes that the benefits both to the importing and the exporting nations are considerable but that there are also some costs. He suggests that the new industry should be regulated and supported in order that it can do its best both for the local population and for the sick people who travel abroad for treatment. This fascinating and highly original book will be of great interest to academics and researchers in areas such as health economics, tourism, social policy, development studies, Asian studies, and public policy. It will also prove invaluable to practitioners actively involved in planning and delivering medical attention in the global economic order.

It is a useful resource for students, researchers, industrial professionals, and design engineers.

Standard Operating Procedures (Sops) in a Hematology Laboratory Dr. BHUSHAN M. WARPE, Dr. SHWETA S. JOSHI, 2025-09-02 This SOP manual authored by Dr. Bhushan and Dr. Shweta details essential practices in a Hematology Laboratory to uphold accuracy, quality, and regulatory compliance. It covers core diagnostic procedures including complete blood counts, peripheral smear examination, ESR, reticulocyte counts, coagulation profiles, and advanced hematology tests alongside critical quality assurance protocols such as delta checks, IQC, TAT monitoring, sample rejection, and disposal guidelines. The manual also addresses laboratory safety, equipment calibration, contingency measures, and outsourcing to NABL accredited centers. Compliant with NABL 112, NABH 6th edition, and ISO 15189 standards, it serves as a vital training and operational guide for DMLT, BPMT, and MD Pathology students. With an emphasis on consistency, audit preparedness, and professional excellence, it reflects Swami Vivekananda's insight: All knowledge that the world has ever received comes from the mind underscoring the role of mindful structured practice in delivering reliable hematology services Tata Memorial Centre Textbook of Oncology Rajendra A. Nedumpara, Satwik Shekhar, Akshaya Venkataraman, 2021-11-05 Global Trade Law Series Volume 55 India one of the world's foremost trading nations exhibits a particularly complex regulatory landscape with a variety of standard setting bodies regulators accreditation and certification bodies inspection agencies as well as several state level regulators This is the first book to extensively describe the nature of standard setting processes in India and the key agencies involved with this task greatly clarifying the scope of market opportunities in the country. Lucid contributions from experienced practitioners and regulators with first hand experience in formulating and advising on standards related issues in international trade help disentangle the web of laws, regulations, operations and functions of India's standard setters in governmental, non-governmental and industry contexts. The chapters describe how standards apply to such crucial trade aspects as the following: conformity assessment practice and procedure, environmental, ethical, social and safety issues, import bans and import licensing, certification and labelling measures, mutual recognition agreements, food safety and standardisation of the digital economy. The book is drafted throughout in an easy to read style with numerous tables, flowcharts and figures illustrating step by step compliance procedures. Informative annexes guide the reader to relevant agencies and identify their roles and responsibilities. This book provides a clear and concise guide to the operations, functions and compliance and documentation requirements of India's standard setting and regulatory bodies across all sectors and products and thus will serve as an unmatched guide for manufacturers, traders and exporters operating in the Indian market or seeking to export to India. It will also serve as a useful Handbook to policymakers, academics and researchers interested in understanding the role of standard setting bodies in the field of international trade.
