systematized form suitable for combination with the results of biblical exegesis and contemporary doctrinal argumentation in the formulation of Reformed orthodox theology This study attempts to assess the claim of catholicity and orthodoxy by Reformed theology demonstrating the formative function of patristic thought in Polanus s theology Further the study illustrates the place of this traditionary exercise within the methodologically eclectic approach followed by Polanus and his contemporaries as they created a theology that drew not only on Scripture and contemporary philosophical assumptions but also on patristic medieval Reformation era traditionary Aristotelian Platonic and Ramist sources This study therefore reappraises the development of Reformed orthodoxy In Polanus s case an older scholarship that read his theology as based on central dogmas or as an exercise of rationalism will be set aside in favor of a more nuanced view of his sources and method Within this larger framework Polanus s use of the fathers builds on and confirms the Reformers s assumption of catholicity in the face of the detailed polemics of Robert Bellarmine as well as confirming the point that his approach to formulation was traditionary and somewhat eclectic Finally the book identifies the theological cohesion of the early orthodox Reformed model as exemplified by Polanus s thought especially in its method of drawing together of traditionary materials from varied sources In short the book demonstrates the importance of the church fathers to the formulation of a Reformed orthodox and catholic theology in the context of showing contrary to previous studies of Polanus s thought and contrary to the older stereotypes of Calvinist orthodoxy that Reformed orthodoxy was neither a rigid monolith nor a matter of philosophical speculation but the product of a carefully conceived exercise in the compilation and assessment of biblical and traditionary materials

Christopher J. Malloy,2005 Catholics and Lutherans signed the Joint Declaration on Justification in 1999 This ecumenical agreement claims to resolve all church dividing differences on justification without requiring doctrinal revision a claim that Engrafted into Christ challenges with a twofold thesis First the historic disagreement over justification was substantial thus doctrinal revision is a sine qua non condition of rapprochement Second portions of the Declaration appear irreconcilable with Catholicism A concluding series of original reflections illustrates the intelligibility of Catholic teaching identifies a self destructive element in sola fide and challenges structural elements of Lutheran theology Experts as well as educated laypersons will be interested in this book Simon Episcopus' Doctrine of Original Sin Mark A. Ellis,2006 Simon Episcopus 1583 1643 who began his theological career as the prot g of Jacobus Arminius led the Arminians at the Synod of Dort and was instrumental in guaranteeing Arminianism s survival This book breaks new ground by clearly showing how in the process of working out the implications of the theological trajectories which Arminius established Episcopus introduced significant changes in his master's theology. It begins by demonstrating changes between Episcopius' early theological works and Arminius' writings and then even greater changes in his mature theological work Institutiones Theologicae. It defends the idea that Arminianism represented a pre-Calvinist movement within the Netherlands which not only rejected Genevan predestination but also intentionally moved away from Reformed Scholasticism. This book is useful for seminars in early Arminian theology and the Arminian controversy in the Netherlands.

Catalogue of the Second Portion of the Very Extensive and Valuable Stock of Mr. Henry George Bohn ..., 1870 Catalogue of the first (-third and concluding) portion of the ... stock of Mr. Henry George Bohn ... which will be sold by auction Henry George Bohn, 1868 Yesteryear's Faith Seeking Understanding Philip John Fisk, 2022-06-24 The voices of yesteryear's scholastics are silenced. Scholastic distinctions discarded. Faith seeking understanding cancelled. This book turns to university professors who brought classical medieval Reformation and Renaissance thought to bear on the teaching of the doctrine of providence at the early New England Colleges. Their ultimate purpose was to exonerate God from the charge that he was the author even actor of evil. Their scholastic method drew from a long and surprisingly ecumenical and philosophical enterprise in the history of the church. This book's aim is to let the scholastic approaches to the mystery of divine providence speak for themselves. Part One introduces the reader to the art of disputation and provides a guided historical theological tour of scholastic distinctions that were used by doctors of the church to explain issues related to the doctrine of divine providence. Part Two invites the reader to follow the author on his journeys to Harvard, Yale, the College of New Jersey and the College of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations commencement day disputations as he engages in Platonic-like dialogues with presidents, rectors and students of the New England Colleges. While the dialogues are imagined, the characters, times, locations and quoted texts are real.
