Approaches to Arabic Popular Culture Konerding, Peter, Wiedemann, Felix, Behzadi, Lale, 2021-09-27 Over recent years Arabic popular culture has become a focal point of West Asian and North African studies Most of the new research dealing with it concentrates on the popular as opposed to an intellectual high culture far from the harsh and hierarchically organized reality many Arabic speaking societies face today Popular cultural practices are thus seen as a rejection of the elite and a stance against those who have something to loose within paralyzed and conservative communities Albeit not denying the subversive political potential associated with these practices this volume intends to take a more nuanced and broader perspective Arabic popular culture might engage with emancipatory claims but it might as easily follow the capitalist rulebook of global marketing It might fight against oppressive authorities yet it can equally become their symbol

Approaches to Arabic Popular Culture therefore closely looks at the aesthetic implications of a topic ranging from Lebanese hip hop over Algerian pop novels to jihadi chants in the Islamic State as well as from Egyptian mahraganat music over sarcastic stories about hash dens and time travel in downtown Cairo to Saudi Arabian YouTube influencers Thus the theoretical scope widens and the reader is taken on a delightful journey to the unsettling pleasures of contemporary Arabic art and culture Cartooning for a Modern Egypt Keren Zdafée, 2019-09-16 In Cartooning for a Modern Egypt Keren Zdafée foregrounds the role that Egypt's foreign local entrepreneurs and caricaturists played in formulating and constructing the modern Egyptian caricature of the interwar years She illustrates how these caricaturists envisioned and evaluated the past present and future of Egyptian society in the context of Cairo's colonial cosmopolitanism Foreign Policy as Nation conceptualizations of society in the journal al Manar the mouthpiece of Islamic reformism the author shows how modernity was articulated from within an Islamic discursive tradition The fact that the classical term umma was a principal term used to conceptualize modern society suggests the convergence of discursive traditions in modernity rather than a mere diffusion of European concepts The Egyptian Military in Popular Culture Dalia Said Mostafa, 2016-11-23 This book examines a key question through the lens of popular culture Why did the Egyptian people opt to elect in June 2014 a new president Abdel

Fattah al Sisi who hails from the military establishment after toppling a previous military dictator Hosni Mubarak with the breakout of the 25 January 2011 Revolution In order to dissect this question the author considers the complexity of the relationship between the Egyptian people and their national army and how popular cultural products play a pivotal role in reinforcing or subverting this relationship The author takes the reader on a journey through crucial historical and political events in Egypt whilst focusing on multi layered representations of the military figure the military leader the heroic soldier the freedom fighter the conscript the martyred soldier and the Intelligence officer in a wide range of popular works in literature film song TV drama series and graffiti art Mostafa argues that the realm of popular culture in Egypt serves as the blood veins which feed the nation s perception of its Armed Forces Media and Society James Curran,David

Mahmoud,2023-12-28 This book offers a nuanced analysis of the ways in which Egyptian and British novels represent the Egyptian nationalist project in its struggle against British hegemony in the aftermath of two revolutions the 1881-82 Urabi Revolution known for inaugurating the British occupation of Egypt and the 1919 Revolution celebrated in Egyptian national memory as the classic Egyptian revolution par excellence Reading the novels against the grain the study recovers female voices that are multiply marginalized due to their gender and or ethnicity whether by colonial imperial powers the nation their immediate regional community or finally by the works under discussion themselves Using a comparative lens the study foregrounds the ways in which the authors confirm critique rewrite revise or reject developmental narratives Female Voices and Egyptian Independence pays particular attention to women that range from the uneducated black slave to the uneducated rural Siwan woman with artistic talent to the wealthy cultured Coptic housewife to the rising late nineteenth century British female professional and finally to the eclipsed twentieth century Egyptian female national intellectual all of whom play crucial roles in the journeys of the respective male
