Verhoef, Edwin Kooge, Natasha Walk, 2016-01-08 Our newly digital world is generating an almost unimaginable amount of data about all of us Such a vast amount of data is useless without plans and strategies that are designed to cope with its size and complexity and which enable organisations to leverage the information to create value This book is a refreshingly practical yet theoretically sound roadmap to leveraging big data and analytics Creating Value with Big Data Analytics provides a nuanced view of big data development arguing that big data in itself is not a revolution but an evolution of the increasing availability of data that has been observed in recent times Building on the authors extensive academic and practical knowledge this book aims to provide managers and analysts with strategic directions and practical analytical solutions on how to create value from existing and new big data By tying data and analytics to specific goals and processes for implementation this is a much needed book that will be essential reading for students and specialists of data analytics marketing research and customer relationship management

Managing Power and People George J. Seperich, Russell W. McCalley, 2006 This practical text offers management students as well as professionals a comprehensive guide to an essential management function the use of power and authority to achieve specific objectives Incorporating numerous case studies and examples of actual management experiences in both large and small companies the book provides an effective approach to the use of power to manage people and projects successfully without fear of conflict The work is based on a unique blending of management and leadership combined to create a powerful influence on employees resulting in the managed responses required to reach the planned objective Building on this principle the authors demonstrate how managers can use the different types of power effectively in a wide variety of situations They show how to make use of an organization's established power structure and offer step by step guidance on the essential concept of FOCUS Management Including learning objectives case studies and discussion questions this text prepares students to apply what is learned directly to any working environment An online Instructor's Manual is available for instructors who adopt the book

News, Inc. David O. Dowling, 2025-06-16 Taking a critical historical approach this book examines the convergence of journalism and advertising industries that has led to the blurring of commercial and editorial functions within news organizations This book considers the rise of brand journalism as it is broadly conceived across multiple genres and media forms from brand produced interactive documentaries such as Google's Beyond the Map to sponsored multimedia features videos and podcasts made by news and non governmental organizations Focusing on cases in North America and Europe Dowling traces the origins of brand journalism and addresses key debates and disruptions brought about by the widespread adoption of the reportorial role by non profits and corporations These include journalistic concerns around threats to independence and impartiality and the commodification of reportorial integrity as well as the reverse perspective in terms of the advertising industry's adjustment to consumer ad avoidance This project aims to situate these media products industrially and culturally in the context of competition for market share in the digital publishing industry Ultimately the study determines how the popularity of branded news content depends on the adaptability of corporate brands in spaces not typically associated with advertising and in some cases not yet discovered by competitors News Inc is recommended reading for advanced students and
