Fantasy Kick Michael Henby, 2006-10 Fantasy football is rapidly becoming one of the most popular games at the workplace. It is played by millions of people in office leagues across the United States and throughout the world. The game creates new and powerful networking dynamics by bringing employees from every level of the organization chart together and different departments for five months during the NFL season. Fantasy Kick breaks down how to play the fun game of fantasy football and use it to help advance your career. 2012 Fantasy Football Draft Guide by The Fantasy Fix, Sports and Their Fans Kevin G. Quinn, 2014-01-10 Though Americans spend more than 25 billion a year on sports and sporting events, this book argues that the influence of sports on our lives is even more profound than this huge figure would seem to suggest. Exploring such topics as the role of sports in the creation of mass culture, cheating, the abuse of illegal drugs, the strange and fascinating role that numbers play in sporting events, and the future of spectator sport, this book surveys the outsized impact that sports have on American culture. The author draws from new work in such fields as history, economics, politics, sociology, psychology, and ethics to support his claims. Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here. Billion Dollar Fantasy Albert Chen, 2019 The author reveals the story of the rise of daily fantasy sports and the brilliant entrepreneurs disrupting the way fans consume sports. Cable Vision, 1998

Advertisers at Work Tracy Tuten, 2012-09-07 Conversations with some of the sharpest minds in advertising lead the reader gently into the heart of the business. A great read whether you're starting out in advertising or simply want to pick up some tips from the greats. Mark Tungate, author of Adland: A Global History of Advertising and Branded Beauty. How Marketing Changed the Way We Look In Advertisers at Work, Tracy Tuten conducts interviews with some of the ad world's biggest players. The interviews, ranging from advertising legend Mike Hughes to leaders of the next generation like David Oakley and Susan Credle, reveal much about the nature of creativity and why we all respond to certain ads, either with a laugh or a purchase. Tuten's skillful questions also highlight how these men and women learned the craft, found mentors, and landed jobs doing things they didn't know you could get paid to do. They talk about successes and failures, their hopes and dreams, and the direction of the industry as we move into the age of social and branded media. If you are in the field of advertising or one of those people who often say, "Hey, did you see that commercial you'll find," Advertisers at Work is a valuable addition to your bookshelf. John Sweeney, Distinguished Professor, School of Journalism, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. Former Associate Creative Director, Foote Cone & Belding. In Advertisers at Work, readers will gain insights from the most interesting people working in the field of advertising today, told in their own words. Guided by interviewer Dr. Tracy Tuten, 18 advertising leaders share their favorite stories, debunk the myths of advertising, make predictions on the industry's future, pay homage to the lions of the past, and offer insights into what it takes to win in the ad game today. Each chapter is devoted to one advertising executive, showcasing that person's unique vision and perspective into the world of advertising. Who are these leaders Talent perseverance creativity and pure grit set these people apart and that's where their similarities end With a mix of senior contributors and up and coming talent representing the creative crafts media planning and account services from a variety of agencies and locales this book pulls back the curtain and invites readers to live each leader's experiences up close They'll learn from the advertisers at work Every interview shows how advertising leaders have an impact on a day to day basis charting strategy making effective pitches managing clients and key partners calling in the creative muse reading the public's mood developing the right mix of media to launch a campaign or pouncing on opportunities the rest of us can't see This book Shares the untold stories of senior executives and rising stars in advertising Demystifies the craft of advertising from the perspectives of creatives media strategists planners and account executives Provides insights strategies and tactics readers can put to work immediately Offers predictions on the rapidly changing advertising landscape Other books in the Apress At Work Series Coders at Work Seibel 978 1 4302 1948 4 Venture Capitalists at Work Shah Shah 978 1 4302 3837 9 CIOs at Work Yourdon 978 1 4302 3554 5 CTOs at Work Donaldson Seigel Donaldson 978 1 4302 3593 4 Founders at Work Livingston 978 1 4302 1078 8 European Founders at Work Santos 978 1 4302 3906 2 Women Leaders at Work Ghaffari 978 1 4302 3729 7 Advertisers at Work Tuten 978 1 4302 3828 7 Gamers at Work Ramsay 978 1 4302 3351 0 Network World, 2002-01-14 For more than 20 years Network World has been the premier provider of information intelligence and insight for network and IT executives responsible for the digital nervous systems of large organizations Readers are responsible for designing implementing and managing the voice data and video systems their companies use to support everything from business critical applications to employee collaboration and electronic commerce RIP (Rest In Peace), a CUL8R Time Travel Mystery/Romance Bob Kat, 2014-02-21 You don't have to believe in ghosts until you meet one Once again Kelly Scott Austin and Zoey are listening to the Spirit Radio when they hear a cry for help from a mother whose four year old daughter Emma went missing in the middle of a busy lobby at the infamous Stanley Hotel But time traveling back to 1911 is a lot more complicated than the three trips they had taken earlier in the summer They have to find appropriate clothes and figure out a way to pay for their stay When they hear about a tragic fire that hurt several hotel employees the teens take advantage of the hotel's desperation and get jobs working as lady's maids and houseboys so they can keep an eye on Emma and her family Even though they know that The Stanley Hotel is possibly the most haunted place in the U S the four teenagers are a little creeped out when they hear ghostly children running in the halls singing songs and even a mysterious ball that keeps showing up in their room How could a hotel that is only two years old already be haunted Most importantly how can they stop Emma from becoming one of the ghosts that are trapped inside the luxurious hotel Midway through their first summer together they celebrate the Fourth of July twice in one year As they try to figure out the mystery of Emma's disappearance they bump in some famous people and experience several historical events But ultimately it's their trust in each other and the friendship that has been forged by two unique experiences no one else on the planet has ever done talk with dead people
