Mediated Memories In The Digital Age:

Mediated Memories in the Digital Age José van Dijck, 2007 This book studies how our personal memory is transformed as a result of technological and cultural transformations digital photo cameras camcorders and multimedia computers inevitably change the way we remember and affect conventional forms of recollection Mediated Memories in the Digital Age Jose van Dijck, 2022 Many people deploy photo media tools to document everyday events and rituals For generations we have stored memories in albums diaries and shoeboxes to retrieve at a later moment in life Autobiographical memory its tools and its objects are pressing concerns in most people s everyday lives and recent digital transformation cause many to reflect on the value and meaning of their own mediated memories Digital photo cameras camcorders and multimedia computers are rapidly replacing analogue equipment inevitably changing our everyday routines and conventional forms of recollection How will digital photographs lifelogs photoblogs webcams or playlists change our personal remembrance of things past And how will they affect our cultural memory The main focus of this study is the ways in which old and new media technologies shape acts of memory and individual remembrances This book spotlights familiar objects but addresses the larger issues of how technology penetrates our intimate routines and emotive processes how it affects the relationship between private and public memory and experience self and others Memory in a Mediated World Andrea Hajek, Christine Lohmeier, Christian Pentzold, 2016-02-10 Considering both retrospective memories and the prospective employment of memories Memory in a Mediated World examines troubled times that demand resolution recovery and restoration Its contributions provide empirically grounded analyses of how media are employed by individuals and social groups to connect the past the present and the future The Politics of Ephemeral Digital Media Sara Pesce, Paolo Noto, 2016-05-26 In the age of complex Tv of social networking and massive consumption of transmedia narratives a myriad short lived phenomena surround films and TV programs raising questions about the endurance of a fictional world and other mediatized discourse over a long arc of time The life of media products can change direction depending on the variability of paratextual materials and activities such as online commentaries and forums promos and trailers disposable merchandise and gadgets grassroots video production archives and gaming This book examines the tension between permanence and obsolescence in the production and experience of media byproducts analysing the affections and meanings they convey and uncovering the machineries of their persistence or disposal Paratexts which have long been considered only ancillary to a central text interfere instead with textual politics by influencing the viewers fidelity or infidelity to a product and affecting a fictional world s life expectancy Scholars in the fields of film studies media studies memory and cultural studies are here called to observe these byproducts temporalities their short form and or long temporal extention their nostalgic politics or future projections and assess their increasing influence on our use of the past and present on our temporal experience and consequently on our social and political self positioning through the media Memory and Theory in Eastern Europe

Uilleam Blacker,Alexander Etkind,2013-09-11 It is the aim of this volume to investigate how academic practices of Memory Studies are being applied adapted and transformed in the countries of East Central Europe and the former Soviet Union It affords a new startlingly different perspective for scholars of both Eastern European history and Memory Studies Public

Humanities and the Spanish Civil War Alison Ribeiro de Menezes,Antonio Cazorla-Sánchez,Adrian Shubert,2018-12-12

This interdisciplinary collection of essays examines contemporary public history s engagement with the Spanish Civil War The chapters discuss the history and mission of the main institutional archives of the war contemporary and forensic archaeology of the conflict burial sites the affordances of digital culture in the sphere of war memory the teaching of the conflict in Spanish school curricula and the place of war memory within human rights initiatives Adopting a strongly comparative focus the authors argue for greater public visibility and more nuanced discussion of the Civil War s legacy
